Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would have no fiscal impact for the Department of Corrections.

It is not known what the fiscal impact of seizing forfeited computers will have for local law enforcement. This bill will allow them to use the computer for their own use, donate it, or sell it and retain 50% of the proceeds of the sale. It is not possible to determine how many computers would be forfeited to local law enforcement, or what would be done with the forfeited computers.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
