Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Current law specifies services that are subject to sales and use tax. Taxable services include, but are not limited to, telephone answering services; laundry and dry cleaning services; photographic and film processing services; and the repair, service, alteration, fitting, cleaning, painting, coating, towing, inspection, and maintenance of tangible personal property.

Under the bill, charges for services provided by a temporary help company, as defined under sec. 108.02 (24m), would not be subject to sales or use tax, if the client for whom the services are provided controls the means of performing the services and is responsible for the satisfactory completion of the services.

According to the Department of Workforce Development, temporary help companies under sec. 108.02 (24m) are companies the U.S. Census classifies temporary help services under NAICS 561320. According to the U.S. Census, nationwide sales of temporary help services (NAICS 561320) were about $64.4 billion in 2001. According to the 1997 Economic Census, Wisconsin accounted for 1.6% of total sales of temporary help services; Wisconsin's percentage share is assumed to remain constant throughout the forecast period.

Based on American Staffing Association statistics, an estimated 8% of sales of temporary help services ($84 million in 2001) are subject to sales tax. Sales of temporary help services are assumed to increase at 3.6% per year, the average rate of change from 1997 through 2001. Assuming a 95% compliance rate, state sales and use taxes would decrease by about $4.5 million in FY05 under the bill.

County and stadium district sales and use taxes were about 7.5% of state sales and use taxes in 2003. Assuming this percentage does not change, local sales and use taxes would decrease by about $0.3 million in FY05 under the bill.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
