Subject: RE: Changes to AB 893 & SB 478

One additional change has been made to the amendment you received this evening (LRBa2365). The change provides that, under created s. 13.489 (2m), TPC "active review" is triggered upon the request for a hearing by any TPC member. Some juggling of the language was necessary to accomplish this, and hopefully the wording of the redraft will meet with your approval. Because of the shortness of time, to expedite matters, I have redrafted LRBa2365, with this change, under a new LRB number, thereby avoiding the delay of having to get the jacket back before a new draft can go out. The assembly amendment is LRBa2408. I have also taken the liberty of drafting the senate amendment with this change as well; it is now LRBa2409. (Karen, if you do not want this change included, please let me know first thing tomorrow and I will get you a version identical to LRBa2365.) I believe these two amendments should be to you by about the start of the 8:30 am hearing.

Pam,

I put the latest amendment draft into editing about half an hour ago. It will be e-mailed to you this evening (hopefully not too late). This is the assembly amendment. Please let me know as soon as possible (by voice mail) if you need any changes. I will wait to hear further before I send the senate draft out.

Also, I think I forgot to include Karen on the direct e-mail routing, so could you please provide a copy. thanks.
Aaron
