2003 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

1 Relating to: proclaiming March 30, 2004, as Sauk City Day in Wisconsin.

2       Whereas, in 1673, the French explorers, Pere Jacques Marquette and Louis
3 Joliet, paddled by this location where the Wisconsin River turns west, on their way
4 to the Mississippi River; and

5       Whereas, in 1766, Jonathan Carver stopped at an Indian village housing a 6 population of 3,000 and described in his expedition diary the "Great Town of the 7 Saukies" as the finest Indian town he had ever seen; and

8       Whereas, in 1832, called out to defend the territory, ~~Col.~~ Zachary Taylor, ~~Lieut.~~ 9 Jefferson Davis, and ~~Pvt.~~ Abraham Lincoln all journeyed through this area; and

10       Whereas, on July 22, 1832, 60-year<sup>v</sup>-old Black Hawk, with a force of 60
11 sharpshooters, delayed the 570-man military force of ~~Gen.~~ James D. Henry and ~~Col.~~
12 Henry Dodge at the Wisconsin Heights Battle Site while his people crossed the 13 Wisconsin River to safety; and 14       Whereas, in 1838, Berry Haney staked his claim on the western shore of the 15 Wisconsin River; and

Colonel
Lieutenant
Private

1           Whereas, in 1839 in a mud dugout, Anna Haney gave birth to Charles, the first 2 white child born at Sauk City; and

3           Whereas, in 1840, Agoston Haraszthy, with cousin Charles Hallasz, journeyed 4 from Hungary to America and, on arrival, bought claims on the eastern and western 5 shores of the Wisconsin River; and

6           Whereas, in 1843, Haraszthy's father, Charles Haraszthy, purchased the 7 squatter's claim at the land office in Mineral Point, had it surveyed, and then filed
8 the first plat of <sup>the</sup> Village of Haraszthy, which would later be named <sup>the</sup> Village of Sauk 9 City; and

10           Whereas, in 1845, <sup>Reverend</sup> ~~Rev.~~ Adelbert Inama, a Norbertine missionary from the 11 Tyrol, established St. Norbert's Church in Roxbury and also mission churches, St.
12 Aloysius Church in Sauk City and St. Mary's Church in Lyndon Station; and

13           Whereas, in 1848, Wisconsin became a state, and on March 30, 1854, Sauk City 14 incorporated, making Sauk City the first incorporated village in the state of 15 Wisconsin; <sup>and</sup> also at which time the Sauk City Fire Department formed, making it the 16 oldest organized volunteer fire department in the state with the oldest extant 17 firehouse in the state; and

18           Whereas, in 1949, Sauk City, with the village of Prairie du Sac, formed a joint 19 police department, the oldest joint law enforcement agency in the state; and

20           Whereas, among many in Sauk City who aspired to make a better world:

all the following

21           (1) Agoston Haraszthy built the first business in Sauk City, a brickyard, and 22 established the foundations of a winery that is today's Wollersheim Winery;

23           (2) Matthias Leinenkugel, a Prussian, and his family, arriving in 1845, constructed 24 both the first Sauk City brewery and the first Leinenkugel Brewery;

1 (3) Eduard Schroeter, an 1848er, served as ~~S~~peaker to the Freie Gemeinde, now the 2 last remaining freethinker congregation in the nation;

3 (4) Alfred Clas, a world renowned architect, designed the Sauk City Free Thinker 4 Hall, Wisconsin Historical Society building, Milwaukee Public Library, and several 5 World's Fair buildings;

6 (5) Earl McFarlane and John Westmont assembled the first 25-horsepower
7 Wisconsin Tractor and established the McFarlane Manufacturing Company;

8 (6) Margaret Stoeffels Turner began the first community hospital that today is the 9 Sauk Prairie Memorial Hospital;

10 (7) Henry Grass built Grass-Premier fire trucks;

11 (8) Theodore Decot invented the Red Arrow Fire Siren, still used today;

12 (9) Emanuel Philip became Governor of the State of Wisconsin;

13 (10) August Derleth wrote more than 150 books and described Sauk City, her people, 14 and the Sauk Prairie area in his prose and poetry; and 15 (11) Hugh Heiney was the first Village Administrator in the state; and

16 Whereas, the people of Sauk City honor all who have lived here, including 17 Native Americans and pioneers of this community; now, therefore, be it

18 Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That on Tuesday, March 19 30, 2004, Sauk City, joined by communities within the Sauk Prairie School District, 20 will celebrate the Sesquicentennial anniversary of official incorporation, and 21 will welcome all Wisconsin people to help celebrate our "Year of Sesquicentennial"
22 beginning in January, 2004; and be it further

23 Resolved, That the members of the Wisconsin legislature congratulate the 24 village of Sauk City on its 150th anniversary and proclaim March 30, 2004, Sauk City
25 Day in Wisconsin; and be it further the members of the Wisconsin legislature acknowledge that
