2003 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

1 Relating to: requiring the Legislative Council to study pharmacy needs in 2 Milwaukee County.

3 Whereas, the well-being of Wisconsin's citizens depends upon access to high 4 ^{No space} quality health care, including an adequate supply of pharmacists; and

5 Whereas, the ~~Pharmacy Society~~ of Wisconsin states that the "future of 6 Wisconsin pharmacies is bleak" citing shortages of pharmacists in Wisconsin; and 7 ^{Whereas,} ~~another~~ study by Western University of Health Sciences has shown that the 8 pharmacist shortage in Wisconsin is one of the most severe in the nation, finding that 9 in Wisconsin it is often difficult to fill open positions; and

10 Whereas, almost one-half of Wisconsin's population resides in the greater 11 Milwaukee area; and

12 Whereas, the pharmacy needs in Milwaukee County should be assessed and 13 recommendations ^{should be} ~~formulated~~ ^{regarding} ~~formulated~~ all of the following

14 ^{No} (1) Improving access to careers in the pharmacy profession within Wisconsin's 15 largest urban center

STET

- ① (2) Facilitating recruitment of diverse students to the pharmacy workforce.
- ② (3) Helping ease the current and projected critical shortage of pharmacists, while contributing to Wisconsin's economic development.
- ④ (4) Improving access and diversity among students in an attempt to help resolve the pharmacist shortage and eventually ease the job vacancy problem; and
- ⑥ (5) Fostering possible collaborations with targeted urban high schools, the pharmacy retail industry, healthcare providers, business communities, and other minority workforce development organizations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the Legislative Council shall create a committee by February 1, 2004, to study pharmacy needs in Milwaukee County pursuant to this joint resolution; and, be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall report its findings and recommendations, including any suggested legislation, by September 1, 2004.
