on. (1) Any resolution to reprimand, censure, or expel an officer or member of the senate shall be referred to a special committee on ethics and standards of conduct, convened for the purpose of holding one or more public hearings on the resolution and submitting the committee's recommendation to the senate. The special committee shall consist of 3 members of the majority party and 3 members of the minority party, appointed as are the members of standing committees.

(2) The hearing shall be scheduled as soon as possible, allowing reasonable time to ascertain the facts of the controversy, to furnish a copy of the detailed written charges to the officer or member cited, and to permit that person to prepare a proper defense.

(3) At the hearing, the officer or member cited may have the advice of counsel, may offer testimony to mitigate or refute the charges, and may cross-examine any witness testifying in support of the charges.

(4) With the consent of the officer or member cited, the committee may vote to close parts of the hearing to the public.

(5) Promptly after the conclusion of the hearing, the committee shall return the resolution to the senate together with a written report containing the committee's recommendation for action on the resolution.

(6) Following senate action on the committee's report, by adoption or rejection of the resolution, referral of the resolution to a standing committee, or return of the resolution to its primary author, the special committee on ethics and standards of conduct is discharged.

SECTION 3. Senate rule 36 (1m) is created to read:

Senate Rule 36 (1m) Any resolution to reprimand, censure, or expel an officer or member of the senate shall identify the charges against the officer or member cited and shall be referred to the committee on ethics and standards of conduct for review under rule 21m.

5

SECTION 4. Senate rule 75 is amended to read:

6

Senate Rule 75. Recording position of absent member. Any member absent from all or part of a day's session by leave of the senate under rule 16 or 23 or pursuant to rule 13 may, within one week after returning, instruct the chief clerk in writing, on a form entitled "statement of position" to be provided by the chief clerk, to have the journal show that had the member been present when a certain vote was taken the member would on that issue have voted aye or have voted no. If the member returns before the vote is taken, the statement of position is void and the member shall cast his or her vote as required under rule 73.
