EDUCATION

ON PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION

Beginning in September 1, 2004, a school board or charter school may not grant a pupil a high school diploma unless the pupil satisfies criteria set by the school board or charter school, including the pupil's score on ~~the~~ high school graduation examination. In addition, a school board or charter school must offer the examination at least twice during the school year to 11th and 12th grade pupils. This bill eliminates these high school graduation examination requirements.
