Under current law, DHFS is required to distribute, as a grant for children's community programs, $50,000 in each fiscal year to court-appointed special advocates programs to perform advocacy services in child in need of protection or services proceedings. This bill eliminates that grant.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
