Subject: Department of Justice 2003-05 Biennial Budget Request Statutory Language Drafts

I am forwarding statutory language changes that the Department of Justice (DOJ) included with its budget submission. The department has proposed to merge the Divisions of Criminal Investigation and Narcotics Enforcement. To do so, the following statutory language changes need to be made:

1. As many six positions would be eliminated from the Narcotics Enforcement Division – the division administrator, one bureau director, a supervisor, two support positions and a research analyst. One of the existing bureau director positions would be used in the reconstituted 'Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement.' Statutory language would be required to change or remove references to the Narcotics Enforcement Division, a division administrator, etc.
