The Adjutant General Appointment

15.31 Department of military affairs; creation. There is created a department of military affairs under the direction and supervision of the adjutant general who shall be appointed by the governor for a 5-year term. The adjutant general may be reappointed to successive terms. Notwithstanding s. 17.28, if a vacancy occurs in the office of the adjutant general, the governor shall appoint a successor for a 5-year term. In order to be considered for appointment, a potential candidate must meet the following minimum requirements:

- a) Holds the federally recognized minimum rank of full colonel (DOD pay grade 0-6).
- b) Except for those qualified under d) below, is a current participating member of one of the following components:
 - 1.) the Wisconsin Army National Guard,
 - 2.) the Army National Guard of the United States,
 - 3.) the U.S. Army Reserve,
 - 4.) ~~the active U.S. Army,~~
 - 5.) the Wisconsin Air National Guard,
 - 6.) the Air National Guard of the United States
 - 7.) the U.S. Air Force Reserve,
 - 8.) ~~the active U.S. Air Force.~~
- c) Is fully qualified to receive federal recognition at the minimum rank of Brigadier General (DOD pay grade 0-7). This requirement shall include successful completion of a War College Course, or the military equivalent acceptable to the appropriate service, prior to submission of an application package for this position.
- d) If the applicant is already a federally recognized general officer, but who meets the following conditions:
 - 1.) has retired from active drilling status within the proceeding 2 years;
 - 2.) the basis of their retired status was service with one of the service components noted in b) above;
 - 3.) he or she is 62 years of age or less;
 - 4.) and, he or she continues to be otherwise eligible for federal recognition as a Major General.

Then such applicant may be considered for appointment.

~~Appointees shall be officers who have actively serving served in the national guard of Wisconsin and who have had at least 5 of the immediately proceeding 7 years of continuous federally recognized commissioned service. And this 5 years of service must have been in the active army national guard of Wisconsin or the active air national guard of Wisconsin or a combination thereof immediately proceeding the date of appointment. Appointees must and have attained at least the rank of lieutenant colonel. An appointee may come from the ranks of the retired reserve if he or she has obtained the highest federally recognized rank of at least Brigadier General, and remains otherwise eligible for federal recognition at the rank of at least Major General.~~
