 4 penalties.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill regulates athlete agents who represent student athletes by enacting the Uniform Athlete Agents Act, which was approved by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in 2000. With certain exceptions, the bill defines an “athlete agent” as someone who does any of the following: 1) enters into an agency contract with a student athlete; 2) recruits or solicits a student athlete to enter into an agency contract; or 3) represents to the public that he or she is an athlete agent. An “agency contract” is defined as any of the following: 1) an agreement under which an athlete agent negotiates on behalf of a student athlete; 2) a professional-sports-services contract; or 3) an endorsement contract. A “student athlete” is defined as an individual who engages in, is eligible to engage in, or may be eligible in the future to engage in, any intercollegiate sport. However, if an individual is permanently ineligible to participate in a particular intercollegiate sport, the individual is not considered to be a student athlete for purposes of that sport.

The bill prohibits an individual from acting as an athlete agent unless he or she is registered with the Department of Regulation and Licensing (DRL). The following are excluded from the definition of “athlete agent” and do not have to register: 1) a spouse, parent, sibling, grandparent, or guardian of a student athlete; 2) an individual acting solely on behalf of a professional sports team or professional sports organization; or 3) an individual who provides information to a student athlete, but who does not recruit or solicit the student athlete to enter into an agency contract. Also, except for signing an agency contract, an individual may act as an athlete agent before being registered if a student athlete, or someone acting on behalf of the student athlete, initiates communication with the individual and he or she applies for registration within seven days after an initial act as an athlete agent. The bill provides that, if an unregistered athlete agent who is required to be registered enters into an agency contract with a student athlete, the contract is void and the athlete agent must return any consideration received under the contract.

An applicant for registration must describe the applicant's training, experience, and education and also identify his or her business associates. For a business that is not a corporation, the applicant must identify the partners, members, officers, managers, associates, or profit sharers of the business. For a corporation, the officers, directors, and shareholders with an interest of 5% or more must be identified. In addition, an applicant must describe all of the following: 1) any felony for which the applicant or a business associate has been convicted; 2) any administrative or judicial determination that the applicant or a business associate has made a false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representation; 3) any instance in which the conduct of the applicant or a business associate has resulted in a sanction, suspension, or declaration of ineligibility to participate in an interscholastic or intercollegiate athletic event; and 4) any sanction, suspension, or disciplinary action taken against the applicant or a business associate arising out of occupational or professional misconduct.

An applicant must submit an application on a form prescribed by DRL. However if the applicant is registered or licensed as an athlete agent in another state, the applicant may, under certain circumstances, submit to DRL a copy of the application to the other state.

DRL must register an applicant as an athlete agent, unless DRL determines that the applicant has engaged in conduct that has a significant adverse effect on the applicant's fitness as an athlete agent. In making this determination, DRL may consider whether the applicant engaged in certain conduct, including the following: 1) conduct that would disqualify the applicant from serving in a fiduciary capacity; 2) conduct that significantly adversely reflects on the applicant's credibility, honesty, or integrity; or 3) conduct that violates prohibitions specified in the bill that are described below. An individual who is registered by DRL must apply to renew the registration every two years and pay a renewal fee. An applicant for renewal may, under certain circumstances, submit an application for renewal that was submitted to another state. DRL may suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a registration for conduct that would have justified denial of the initial registration.

The bill imposes certain requirements on agency contracts between athlete agents and student athletes. An agency contract must contain specified provisions, including a notice to the student athlete that, by signing the contract, he or she may lose his or her eligibility to compete as a student athlete. The bill gives a student athlete the nonwaivable right to cancel an agency contract within 14 days after the contract is signed. In addition, a student athlete may void an agency contract that does not comply with the bill's requirements. Also, both the athlete agent and the student athlete must notify the student athlete's athletic director about an agency contract within 72 hours after execution of the contract or before the next scheduled athletic event in which the student athlete may participate, whichever occurs first.

The bill prohibits an athlete agent from engaging in the following conduct with the intent to induce a student athlete to enter into an agency contract: 1) making materially false promises or representations; or 2) furnishing anything of value to the student athlete or any other individual, including another athlete agent. The bill also prohibits an athlete agent from intentionally engaging in certain conduct, including the following: 1) initiating contact with a student athlete unless the athlete agent is registered under the bill; or 2) failing to notify a student athlete that signing an agency contract may make him or her ineligible to participate in a sport as a student athlete. In addition, the bill imposes record-keeping requirements on athlete agents.

An athlete agent who violates the bill's prohibitions may be fined $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both. The bill also allows DRL to directly assess a forfeiture of not more than $25,000 for a violation of the bill. In addition, an educational institution may bring an action against an athlete agent or former student athlete for damages caused by a violation of the bill.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

23 of registration or licensure only after proper notice and an opportunity for a hearing.
