THE UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
MADISON

February 25, 2004

To the Members,
Assembly Veterans and Military Affairs Committee
Representative Terry Musser, Chair

Dear Members:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for addressing the current statutory impediment to providing resident tuition status to students called to active duty, and who otherwise are eligible to receive veterans' benefits through the State of Wisconsin. We support any effort to provide unambiguous residency tuition status to persons who have served on active duty, as defined in Assembly Bill 869. In fact, we would support an effort to broaden the reach of this bill to include all individuals who have served on active duty regardless of their home state of record.

We thank the members for their efforts to address an unanticipated and certainly undesirable consequence of the current statutes governing residency status, which we, too, have found limiting.

Sincerely,

Peter D. Spear
Provost
