Joe Hoey from Wasserman's office called.
They want a draft (for next session) that makes it legal to resell tickets to an event as long as the sale price is no greater than the face value of the tickets.

He says Madison, Milwaukee + Green Bay (by ordinance?) restrict the resale of tickets within a certain area around the venue (e.g., Camp Randall, Summerfest, Lambeau).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under this bill, a political subdivision (city, village, town, or county) may not enact an ordinance or adopt a resolution ~~which~~ prohibits the resale of tickets to an entertainment or sporting event if the resale price is equal to or less than the ticket's face value. If a political subdivision has in effect an ordinance or resolution that is inconstant with this bill, such an ordinance or resolution does not apply and may not be enforced.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 66.0410 of the statutes is created to read:

4 66.0410 Local regulation of ticket reselling. (1) DEFINITIONS. In this 5 section:

6 (a) "Political subdivision" means a city, village, town, or county.

1 (b) "Ticket" means a ticket that is sold to an entertainment or sporting event.

2 (2) RESELLING OF TICKETS. (a) A political subdivision may not enact an
3 ordinance or adopt a resolution prohibiting the resale of any ticket for an amount
4 that is equal to or less than the ticket's face value.

5 (b) If a political subdivision has in effect on the effective date of this subsection

6 A) ...[revisor inserts date] an ordinance or resolution that is inconsistent with par. (a),
7 the ordinance or resolution does not apply and may not be enforced.
