Current law prohibits any person from making a bomb scare (intentionally conveying or causing to be conveyed any threat or false information, knowing such to be false, concerning an attempt or alleged attempt being made or to be made to destroy any property by the means of explosives). Current law prohibits, with exceptions, any person from knowingly possessing a firearm at a place that the individual knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, is a school zone. Such a violation is a Class I felony, punishable by a fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment not to exceed three years and six months, or both.

Current law prohibits, with exceptions, any person from knowingly, or with reckless disregard for the safety of another, discharging or attempting to discharge a firearm at a place the individual knows is a school zone. Such a violation is a Class G felony, punishable by a fine not to exceed $25,000 or imprisonment not to exceed ten years, or both.

Upon receiving the notice, DOT must suspend the person's operating privilege for two years. If the person's operating privilege is already suspended or revoked at the time of the violation, or if the person is not eligible for an operator's license at the time of the violation, the period of suspension does not begin until the person is eligible and applies for an operator's license.
