Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Among other provisions, this bill would change the basis for assessing impact fees for high-voltage transmission lines. Currently the assessment is based on 0.3% of the cost of the line. Under the bill the basis would change to 0.3% of the net book value. This would effectively decrease the amount received by local governments from this assessment. Since Wisconsin currently has no transmission lines subject to the impact fee, the amount of revenue loss cannot be estimated at this time.
