Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The bill allows legislative leaders to request agencies to prepare no more than 4 economic impact statements annually. DOA's State Budget Office is given responsibility for assigning preparation to affected agencies.

The proposed activity level will not add significantly to the department's workload, and consequently there is no fiscal impact.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

If the pilot program is extended in the future, an electronic process similar to the current fiscal estimate system would need to be developed. The cost of developing and maintaining such a system has not been determined at this time.
