Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The bill reduces the amount that may be contracted for public debt for the History Center from $131,500,000 to $30,000,000.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

Depending on the development of the History Center building, the Historical Society may need to seek an increase in the public debt from the reduced level proposed in this bill. We do not have enough information at this point to be more specific on the History Center building.
