Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Scope of Wisconsin Consumer Act

Under current law, a transaction that is in an amount of $25,000 or less and that is entered into for personal, family, or household purposes is generally subject to the Wisconsin Consumer Act (consumer act). The consumer act provides obligations, remedies, and penalties that current law generally does not require for other transactions. In addition to other exceptions, the consumer act does not apply to certain transactions relating to a first lien residential mortgage that originally had a principal amount in excess of $25,000. Thus, if the original principal amount of a mortgage was greater than $25,000, a refinancing of the mortgage would not be subject to the consumer act, even if the mortgage has a current balance of $25,000 or less.
This bill expands current law by increasing the coverage of the consumer act to include a personal, family, or household transaction that is in an amount of $75,000 or less. In addition, this bill narrows the mortgage refinancing exception to the consumer act to exclude certain transactions relating to a first lien residential mortgage with an original principal amount in excess of $75,000.

Uniform Commercial Code and licensed lenders

Wisconsin’s version of the Uniform Commercial Code treats the parties to a commercial lease differently from the parties to a consumer lease that is in the amount of $25,000 or less. For example, a lessee under a consumer lease may recover attorney fees if a court holds that a portion of the lease resulted from the unconscionable conduct of the lessor. This bill expands the applicability of these Uniform Commercial Code provisions to cover a consumer lease that is in the amount of $75,000 or less. This bill also makes conforming changes to the licensed lender law to maintain existing consistency with the consumer act.

Penalties under the Wisconsin Consumer Act

Generally, the consumer act currently provides three different penalties for specified violations. The lowest penalty is $25 plus actual damages. This bill deletes this penalty. The next lowest penalty is $100 plus actual damages. This bill increases this penalty to $500 plus actual damages and applies this penalty to all violations that are currently subject to the lowest penalty. The highest penalty is twice the amount of the finance charge in the applicable transaction (with a minimum of $100 and a maximum of $1,000) or actual damages. This bill increases this penalty to twice the amount of the finance charge in the applicable transaction (with a minimum of $500 and a maximum of $5,000) or actual damages.
