I found just a few very minor issues:

1. At the bottom of page 1, I would suggest breaking the 2 sentences of par. (a)(intro.) into 2 separate subdivisions; the budget sub has them separate. As drafted, it looks like the second sentence is a limit on the first sentence, when it really isn't.
2. About half-way down page 3, 45.03(11) should replace 45.35(9m).
3. About two-thirds of the way down page 5, the reference to sub. (2) should be to "this subsection".

Pam and company: I concur in Dick's and your comments re references and structure. One additional point. I can only assume that the language re a 2.0 or C average for a "semester", at (d) 4., which was added by a JFC motion, is what JFC had in mind. Under current law, a veteran must get at least a "C" for a "course" when the application is for part-time study. [VA 2.02 (8)]. Since the new program does retain a part time study component, the statutory language should probably address this issue, rather than simply referencing a semester average. I had intended to replicate the current requirements in the rule to implement the new educational grant program. Again, I'm not sure what JFC's intent was so I'm only raising it for discussion purposes. JR

Thanks, John. I just looked through it and noticed, among other things, that there are several references to "sub. (5)", for example twice on p. 4, which should read "par. (e)." Ditto with some references to sub. (2) which should be par. (c).

In comparing this to the budget language, please remember that in addition to making changes in 45.25, the budget also brings over some stuff into 45.25. from 45. 397. I was under great time pressure on Friday in drafting this thing, so please read carefully to see if I've missed pulling anything from the budget in. Also, if you think the organization needs any tweaking, feel free to make suggestions.

Why don't you let me know when you've given it a thorough look and we'll figure out a time when we can all get together to go over our edits. What's your afternoon schedule like?

Hi John,

Just wanted to check your availability this morning (and perhaps this afternoon as well). Shortly, Bob Nelson will be getting Dick and me a bill draft that takes out all the ch. 45 provisions from the budget and puts them into the recodified ch. 45 structure. The most difficult part was to fold in all of the changes in the education and training subchapter. We'd like you to take a look at the bill, and particularly that portion, as soon as we get it from LRB. Are you in? We'll e-mail it to you and then may want to get together w/ all reviewers (us, Bob, and the Fiscal Bureau) to be sure it's everything we need. The plan is that the Assembly will pass it tomorrow, the Senate will concur on Thursday.

Hope to hear from you shortly.

Thanks.
