Subject Presentence investigation report

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill allows a crime victim, or if the crime is a homicide, a family member of the victim, to view the Department's presentence investigation report if the victim or family member signs a written agreement to keep the contents of the report confidential. This bill also provides a penalty for violations of the confidentiality pledge.

The Department can not predict the number of persons who may be subject to contempt of court for violating the confidentiality pledge. If a person is given jail time for an infraction then county costs would increase.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
