Subject: Trade regulation request: Yo Yo Water Ball

John Anderson in Rep. Amy Sue Vruwink's office called to request a bill banning the sale or distribution of a toy called the "yo yo water ball". Apparently, there is an Illinois bill to ban the sale that is being signed into law today. The Illinois bill is SB 1960, introduced by Sen. Jeffrey Schoenberg. However, the Illinois bill only bans sales. Vruwink wants to also ban distribution, as well as sale, so that people can't give them out as prizes or whatnot to kids.

I told John that you would probably do this one. Give him a call if you have questions at 266-8366.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits the sale or distribution of a yo-yo waterball, defined in the bill as a soft, rubber-like ball that is filled with a liquid and is attached to an elastic cord.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 134.62 of the statutes is created to read:

Representative Vruwink:

In this draft, the prohibition on the sale or distribution of yo-yo waterballs is enforced by the district attorney. Is this okay? Alternatively, the draft could give enforcement authority to DATCP.

I have modeled the penalty provision after the provision in the Illinois law: $1,000 per violation, with each sale or distribution of a yo-yo waterball constituting a separate violation. Is this consistent with your intent?
