I assume that this is Jeff's draft, if a draft is needed.

Jeff and Larry: I assume that a law is needed for this by placing A in the column for legislators.

Peter,

Rep. Lothian would like to author a bill that accomplishes the following: allows legislators to order specific number of Blue Books in a quantity no higher than the quantity currently specified by statute.

This would be an opt-in process. If a legislator does not place an order, they would receive the maximum (current quantity specified in statute). However, they could order any amount less than that by a certain date, using whatever mechanism those responsible for publishing and distributing the Blue Book thinks would make sense. I have polled a number of staff and legislators who think this is a good idea. I have also discussed the idea with Mr. Barish. Also, it would need to be clear that the amount ordered would be what is available to the legislator and that additional orders could not be placed later. However, I think everybody knows that there will still be offices with extra that are willing to share. It happens all the time.

Every week we see e-mails begging people to come and take surplus Blue Books away and we see quite a few of those e-mails right after the new ones arrive. This would simply allow those who know that they will not use the current allotment to prevent wasting the resources necessary to create, distribute and warehouse what becomes surplus, anyway.

Regards,

Royce K. DeBow

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION #.

2005-2006 DRAFTING INSERT
FROM THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-1213/lins2

JTK.....
WJ

Currently, each state senator receives 600[✓] copies of each edition of the Blue Book and each representative to the assembly receives 350[✓] copies of each edition of the Blue Book. The copies are paid for from appropriations made for the operation of the legislature.

This bill permits each senator and representative to the assembly to make a written request to the sergeant at arms of his or her house, no later than a date specified by the Department of Administration (DOA), to receive a lesser number of copies of the next edition of the Blue Book than the number provided by law. Under the bill, the sergeant then certifies to DOA the total number of copies of each edition of the Blue Book that are requested or directed by law to be distributed to members of his or her house. The bill provides that a request is not subject to withdrawal or modification after the date specified by DOA.

SECTION ~~1~~ 35.24 (4) of the statutes is created to read:

35.24 (4) Prior to the publication of each edition of the Blue Book, the department shall send notice to the sergeant at arms of each house of the legislature that any senator ^{SET} or representative ^{to the assembly} may, no later than the date specified by the department, limit the number of copies of the Blue Book to be distributed to him or her by making a written request to the sergeant at arms specifying a number of copies that is lower than the number of copies ^{to the assembly} that the senator or representative is entitled to receive by law. Upon receipt of a timely request, the sergeant at arms shall determine and certify to the department the total number of Blue Books to be received by his or her house by subtracting the total reduction of copies requested from the total number provided to be distributed by law. If a senator or representative to the assembly files a written request with the sergeant at arms to reduce the quantity of any edition of Blue Books to be distributed to him or her, the request may not be withdrawn or modified after the last date specified by the department for a request to be made under this subsection. Upon publication of each edition of the Blue Book, the department shall deliver to the sergeant at arms of each house of the legislature the total number of Blue Books certified under this subsection and ^{SET each} the sergeant at arms shall ^{then} distribute the number of Blue Books requested or specified by law to each senator ^{or} and representative to the assembly.
