

2005 ASSEMBLY BILL 1019

February 14, 2006 – Introduced by Representatives AINSWORTH, BIES, FREESE, JESKEWITZ, KRAWCZYK, LOEFFELHOLZ, OTT, OWENS, PETROWSKI, TOWNSEND, VOS and McCORMICK. Referred to Committee on Transportation.

1     AN ACT to create 85.165 of the statutes; relating to: background checks for
2           certain Department of Transportation employees.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires the Department of Transportation to perform a background criminal check, using fingerprint analyses by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, on any person who is hired to fill a position in the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV). The bill does not require the background check on current DMV employees or any potential DMV employee who has been previously employed by the state.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
