Rel: Commending Renee Graef

on her work as an illustrator

WHEREAS, Renée Graef was born in Sheboygan, Wisconsin and grew up in Greendale, Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, Renée attended the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, majoring in art before transferring to the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where she received her bachelor's degree in art; and

WHEREAS, in 1985 Renée met Pleasant Rowland, who had an idea of selling historical books and dolls together; and

WHEREAS, Renée worked on the initial presentation boards for the Pleasant Company, followed by the "Kirsten" books in the American Girl Collection; and

WHEREAS, Renée has illustrated more than 60 books for children and worked as creative director for HarperCollins's "My First House" books by Laura Ingalls Wilder and illustrated many of the books in the program; and

WHEREAS, Renée was thrilled with the opportunity to illustrate "B is for Badger: A Wisconsin Alphabet," as a way to pay tribute to our wonderful state; and

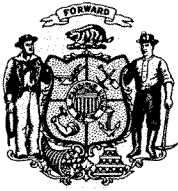

WHEREAS, Renée makes her home in lovely Cedarburg, Wisconsin with her husband, Tim, and their two children, Maggie and Max; and

WHEREAS, Renée is proud of her Wisconsin heritage and appreciates the beauty and unique culture found in our state; now, therefore, be it

~~Representative Mark Gottlieb, on behalf of the Wisconsin State Assembly, with the concurrence of Representative Peggy Krusick, under Assembly Rule 97, hereby pays tribute to Renée Graef and her work as a renowned illustrator from the State of Wisconsin.~~

Resolved by the Assembly, That The members of the Wisconsin assembly commend Renee Graef on her work as a renowned illustrator from the State of Wisconsin; and, be it further:

Resolved, That the assembly chief clerk shall provide a copy of this resolution to Renee Graef.
