

2005 SENATE BILL 656

March 6, 2006 – Introduced by Senators ROBSON and RISSER, cosponsored by Representatives SHERIDAN, BENEDICT, TURNER, SINICKI, MUSSER, TOWNS and KAUFERT. Referred to Committee on Judiciary, Corrections and Privacy.

1 AN ACT to create 941.20 (1m) (c) of the statutes; relating to: pointing a firearm
2 at or towards a law enforcement officer and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits a person from intentionally pointing a firearm at or towards a law enforcement officer who is acting in an official capacity. A person who violates this prohibition is guilty of a felony and may be fined up to $10,000 or sentenced to a term of imprisonment of up to six years (which, if the sentence is for more than one year, includes a term of extended supervision) or both.

This bill prohibits a person from intentionally pointing an object at or towards a law enforcement officer who is acting in an official capacity if the law enforcement officer may reasonably believe that the object is a firearm.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.
