Joe -- We may also need to add to this draft language clarifying that, in determining state aid for calculation of the school revenue limits, that state aid is to include the computer aid to schools paid to them in July. (Since it still is aid for the "current" school year, however, I'm not certain if this is necessary.)

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Under current law, computers and computer-related equipment, cash registers, and fax machines are exempt from the imposition of property taxes. The state, however, provides aid to each taxing jurisdiction in which such property is located in an amount equal to the amount that the taxing jurisdiction would have received had such property been taxable. The full amount of the state aid payments are paid on or before the first Monday in May. Under this bill, beginning in 2007, the full amount of the state aid payments are paid on or before the 4th Monday in July.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
