Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a city, village, town that is authorized to exercise village powers (municipality), or county is authorized to enact zoning ordinances that regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures; the percentage of lot that may be occupied; the size of yards and other open spaces; the density of population; and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for various purposes.

A municipality's board of appeals or a county's board of adjustment is authorized under current law to hear and decide appeals that allege that there is an error in the enforcement of a zoning ordinance, to hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of a zoning ordinance, and to authorize a variance from the terms of a zoning ordinance. Currently, the county board chair of a county with a population of 500,000 or more and the chief executive officer of a municipality (a city mayor, village board president, or town board chair) may appoint two alternate members of the board of adjustment or appeals, who act when a member of the board of adjustment or appeals refuses to vote because of a conflict of interest or when a member is absent.

This bill requires all municipalities or counties that have a board of appeals or adjustment to appoint alternate members of the board. The bill also specifies that if a quorum is present the board of appeals or adjustment may take action by a majority vote, and repeals a current law provision that requires four out of five votes for action by a city, village, or certain town board of appeals.

For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
