

DRAFTER'S NOTE
FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-0241/3dn
RNK:wlj:rs

December 28, 2004

Please review the changes contained in this redraft to ensure that they meet your intent.

As you know, this draft has a delayed effective date of December 1, 2005, except that the draft also provides that the Department of Commerce must submit proposed rules to the Legislative Council Staff no later than approximately one year after the date of publication of the bill. These dates suggest that there will be no lead time for the Department of Commerce to promulgate the rules required under this draft. You might consider advancing the December 1, 2005, date to ensure that rules are in place before the substantive portions of the bill become law.

You will note that I did not make the following changes suggested by the Department of Commerce:

1. I did not change the title of s. 101.94, stats., because I believe that the title is still accurate despite the repeal of s. 101.94 (3), (4), and (5), stats.
2. I did not repeal s. 101.92 (2), stats., because I was concerned that the repeal could be interpreted as a substantive change to current law.
3. I did not move s. 101.92 (8), stats., to s. 101.95, stats., because I think this change is not necessary.

If you have any questions concerning this draft, please feel free to contact me.
