 7 statutes; relating to: a state minimum wage, granting rule-making authority, 8 and providing a penalty

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, the state minimum wage law requires that employers pay a living wage to their employees. Under that law, the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) has provided, by rule, minimum wages for various types of employees, including employees, generally; opportunity employees, which are defined as employees under 20 years of age in their first 90 days of employment with a particular employer; tipped employees; agricultural employees; camp counselors; golf caddies; students employed at independent colleges and universities for less than 20 hours per week; student learners employed in bona fide school training programs; and individuals who are unable to earn the standard minimum wage

ASSEMBLY BILL 77

Meals

Current allowance	$44.40 per week or $2.10 per meal
Allowance on enactment	$51 per week or $2.40 per meal

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 31. 800.095 (4) (b) 3. of the statutes is amended to read:

14 800.095 (4) (b) 3. That the defendant perform community service work for a 15 public agency or a nonprofit charitable organization designated by the court, except 16 that the court may not order the defendant to perform community service work 17 unless the defendant agrees to perform community service work and, if the 18 community service work is in lieu of restitution, unless the person to whom the 19 restitution is owed agrees. The court may utilize any available resources, including 20 any community service work program, in ordering the defendant to perform
 21 community service work. The number of hours of community service work required 22 may not exceed the number determined by dividing the amount owed on the 23 forfeiture, or restitution, or both, by the minimum wage established under ~~ch. 104~~
 24 ~~for adults in nonagriculture, nontipped employment~~ s. 104.035 (1). The court shall

SECTION 32. 895.035 (2m) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 895.035 (2m) (c) The court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under chs. 48 and 5 938 may order that the juvenile perform community service work for a public agency 6 or nonprofit charitable organization that is designated by the court in lieu of making 7 restitution or paying the forfeiture or surcharge. If the parent agrees to perform 8 community service work in lieu of making restitution or paying the forfeiture or 9 surcharge, the court may order that the parent perform community service work for 10 a public agency or a nonprofit charitable organization that is designated by the court.
11 Community service work may be in lieu of restitution only if also agreed to by the 12 public agency or nonprofit charitable organization and by the person to whom 13 restitution is owed. The court may utilize any available resources, including any 14 community service work program, in ordering the juvenile or parent to perform
15 community service work. The number of hours of community service work required 16 may not exceed the number determined by dividing the amount owed on the 17 restitution, forfeiture, or surcharge by the minimum wage established under ch. 104
18 for adults in nonagriculture, nontipped employment s. 104.035 (1). The court shall 19 ensure that the juvenile or parent is provided with a written statement of the terms 20 of the community service order and that the community service order is monitored.
