Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, no person may falsely make or alter a certified abstract of title to real estate with the intent to defraud another. A person who violates this prohibition may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than nine months or both. This bill expands the scope of that prohibition so that it covers falsifying a title insurance commitment, a title insurance policy, or any other written evidence regarding the state of title to real estate.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
