

DRAFTER'S NOTE
FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-4360/2dn
RLR:lmk:jf

January 23, 2006

Jason:

This redraft provides that a person who attempts to commit a Class A misdemeanor theft, fraud, loan fraud, or concealment of collateral against a financial institution is subject to the penalty for a Class B misdemeanor. In general, the penalty for attempt to commit a felony is the next lower class felony, for example, attempt to commit a Class E felony is penalized as a Class F felony. Unless specified, there is no penalty for attempt to commit a misdemeanor.
