Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law requires public colleges and universities, including technical colleges, to allow a student who is forced to withdraw from school after September 11, 2001, because he or she is called into active military service to reimburse the student for tuition, fees, and prorated room and board or to grant the student an incomplete and allow the student to complete the courses within six months of leaving service without paying additional tuition or fees. Current law requires a private college or university to grant such a student an incomplete and allow the student to complete the courses within six months of leaving service, without paying additional tuition or fees, but does not give a private college or university the option of reimbursing tuition, fees, and prorated room and board instead of granting an incomplete and permitting the student to complete the course.

Current law provides these protections to members of the Wisconsin National Guard and to members of a reserve unit of the U.S. armed forces. Under this bill the protections are provided to residents of Wisconsin who are members of the national guard of any state or of a reserve unit of the U.S. armed forces.

ASSEMBLY BILL 406
