Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under current law, a surviving spouse of a deceased person who had a military special group license plate may keep the plate.

This bill provides that the surviving spouse may

- Personalize the military special group plate if it was not previously personalized,
- Relinquish the personalized message and obtain a standard-number military group plate, if the plate was previously personalized, and
- Change the personalized plate message to another personalized plate message if the plate was previously personalized.

This bill would have no fiscal impact on DOT or on the Transportation Fund.
