Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Engrossment information:

The text of Engrossed 2005 Senate Bill 1 consists of the following documents adopted by the senate on November 1, 2005: the bill as affected by Senate Amendments 1, 2, 3 (as affected by chief clerk's correction), 4, and 5.

Certain of these amendments affect the same text. In this bill, amendments are reconciled as follows:

1. Senate Amendment 1 affects the treatment by 2005 Senate Bill 1 of s. 5.05 (2m) (d) 1. Senate Amendment 3 removes the treatment of s. 5.05 (2m) (d) 1. This bill reflects the effect of Senate Amendment 3.

2. Senate Amendment 4 affects SECTION 141 (4) (b) of 2005 Senate Bill 1. Senate Amendment 3 removes SECTION 141 (4) (b). This bill reflects the effect of Senate Amendment 3.

Content of Engrossed 2005 Senate Bill 1:

Currently, the Elections Board consists of nine members. The governor appoints all of the members of the Elections Board, without confirmation by the senate, to serve for two-year terms as follows: one member is selected by the governor and one member each is designated by the chief justice of the Supreme Court, the speaker of the assembly, the senate majority leader, the minority leader in each house of the legislature, and the chief officer of each political party qualifying for a separate ballot at the September primary whose candidate for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election received at least 10 percent of the vote (currently, the Republican, Democratic, and Libertarian parties).

Currently, the Ethics Board consists of six members. Members of the Ethics Board are nominated by the governor, and with the advice and consent of the senate appointed, to serve for staggered six-year terms. All members must be U.S. citizens and residents of this state, and no member may hold any other office or employment in the government of this state or any political subdivision thereof or in any state department. In addition, no member, for one year immediately prior to the date of appointment, may have been, and no member, while serving on the Ethics Board, may become, a member of a political party, an officer or member of a committee in any partisan political club or organization, or a candidate for any partisan office.

This bill abolishes both boards and replaces them with a Government Accountability Board. Under the bill, the board is composed of four members serving for staggered four-year terms who are nominated by the governor and appointed with the advice and consent of the senate. Each of the members must be appointed from nominations submitted by a Government Accountability Candidate Committee, which consists of the chief justice of the supreme court, the dean of the University of Wisconsin law school, and the dean of the Marquette University law school. A unanimous vote of the committee is required to nominate a candidate. No member of the Government Accountability Board may hold a position that is subject to the code of ethics for state public officials or the code of ethics for local public officials. No member, for one year immediately prior to the date of appointment, may have been, and no member while serving on the board may become, a member of a political party, an officer or member of a committee in any partisan political club or organization, a candidate for any partisan office or an officer or employee of a registrant under the campaign finance law. No member may be a lobbyist or an employee of a principal (person who employs a lobbyist).

The bill creates an Enforcement Division within the Government Accountability Board. The Enforcement Division is headed by an administrator who is appointed by the executive director of the board outside the classified service for a term of not less than four years nor more than six years, expiring on September 1 of an odd-numbered year. The administrator may not be removed during his or her term except for cause.

The bill also permits the executive director to appoint up to two other division administrators outside the classified service but the bill does not authorize any new positions for the administrators under the bill. The bill transfers all members of the existing staffs of the Elections Board and Ethics Board and their positions to the Government Accountability Board. Under the bill, the staff members who have civil service rights retain those rights. The bill does not provide any funding for continued employment of the staff members, however.

The Enforcement Division is empowered to investigate violations and bring civil and criminal actions to enforce the elections, ethics, and lobbying regulation laws. However, before bringing an action to prosecute any alleged criminal violation, the division must provide written notice to the district attorney for the county where the alleged violation occurs. If the district attorney fails to prosecute within 30 days after receiving the notice or declines to prosecute, the division may then prosecute the alleged violation. Under current law, the Elections Board and Ethics Board share civil enforcement authority with district attorneys and in some cases with the attorney general; and the district attorneys, and in some cases the attorney general, exercise criminal enforcement authority. Under the bill, the Enforcement Division has independent authority to investigate violations of the elections, ethics, and lobbying regulation laws and to prosecute civil violations without the consent of the Government Accountability Board, except that the division must obtain the concurrence of the board before issuing a subpoena or obtaining a search warrant. The bill requires the Enforcement Division to obtain the approval of the board before commencing a criminal prosecution. The bill permits the Enforcement Division to request investigatory and prosecutorial assistance from the Department of Justice and directs the Department of Justice to provide such assistance upon request. Under the bill, the Enforcement Division is bound by applicable laws, rules, formal opinions, and actions of the board, except that the division may nonacquiesce in any formal opinion or action of the board by publishing a notice of nonacquiescence in the Wisconsin Administrative Register. Thereafter, the division is not bound by that opinion or action.

Currently, the Elections and Ethics boards have sum certain appropriations derived from state general purpose revenue. In addition, both boards finance some of their operations with program revenue. This bill repeals all appropriations to both boards and does not make any appropriations to the Government Accountability Board. Under the bill, the Government Accountability Board will be unable to operate unless funding is provided for the board by other legislation. The bill requires the board to forward the division's budget requests to the Department of Administration without change, except as concurred in by the division.

Under the bill, any person may file a sworn complaint with the division alleging a violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws. The division must investigate the complaint unless the division finds the complaint to be without merit. The bill also permits the division to investigate any violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws on its own initiative or upon direction of the board. The division may order an election official or private person to act in conformity with the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws or rules of the board, and may impose a forfeiture (civil monetary penalty) for a violation. The decision of the division may be appealed to the board or may be appealed directly to circuit court. In deciding an appeal, the board is not bound by any findings of fact or conclusions of law made by the division with respect to the matter. If the decision of the division is not appealed or if the board does not modify or reverse a decision of the division after hearing an appeal, the decision of the division becomes the decision of the board. Any decision of the board is also subject to judicial review in circuit court. If the board modifies or reverses an action of the division, the division may also seek judicial review of the board's decision. The procedure does not apply to any alleged violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws by the board or division, nor to any matter arising in connection with a recount.

The bill provides for the bill to become law on the day after publication, after which date the members of the Government Accountability Board may be appointed and take office. However, the existing Elections Board and Ethics Board continue in operation until the first day of the sixth month beginning after publication, subject to appropriation of money for continued operation of the boards by other legislation.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 1

Under the bill, the Government Accountability Board may not exercise administrative or enforcement authority until the first day of the sixth month beginning after publication. The bill also provides that the director of the Legislative Council Staff shall serve as executive director of the Government Accountability Board, without additional compensation, until the initial executive director of the Government Accountability Board is appointed and qualified, and may exercise all of the functions of the executive director of the Government Accountability Board, the enforcement division, and the administrator of the enforcement division.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

10 opinion will be issued. If a formal opinion will be issued, it shall be issued within 30
11 days of the request. The executive director may consult with the board before issuing 12 a formal opinion. No person acting in good faith upon a formal opinion issued to the 13 person by the board executive director shall be subject to civil or criminal prosecution
14 for so acting, if the material facts are as stated in the opinion request. Nothing in 15 this subsection requires the issuance of an opinion by the board executive director,
16 nor precludes it the executive director from issuing an opinion or ruling in any other 17 manner.

18 SECTION 11m. 5.05 (11) of the statutes is repealed.

19 SECTION 12. 5.052 of the statutes is created to read:

24 as chairperson of the committee.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 1

15 accountability candidate committee.

16 (2) Assist the government accountability candidate committee in the 17 performance of its functions.

18 SECTION 14. 5.066 of the statutes is created to read:

20 (a) "Division" means the enforcement division of the board.

21 (b) "Election official" includes any board of election commissioners under s. 7.20 22 or governing body of a local governmental unit that has the responsibility to 23 administer the election laws.

24 (c) "Local governmental unit" has the meaning given in s. 16.97 (7).

25 (d) "Working day" has the meaning given in s. 227.01 (14).

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 1SECTION 14

1 (2) Any person may file a verified complaint with the division alleging a
2 violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19. The division shall 3 investigate the complaint unless the division finds the complaint to be without merit.
4 The division may, on its own motion or upon direction of the board, investigate any 5 potential violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 whenever 6 the division has probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred. If the 7 division finds, by a preponderance of evidence, that a complaint is frivolous, the 8 division may order the complainant to forfeit not more than the greater of $500 or 9 the expenses incurred in investigating the complaint. The attorney general, when 10 so requested by the division, shall institute proceedings to recover any forfeiture 11 incurred under this subsection that is not paid by the person against whom it is 12 assessed.

13 (3) If the complaint concerns a question as to whether an election official or a
14 private person is acting in conformity with the law or rules of the board, the person
15 filing the complaint shall serve a copy of the complaint upon that official or private 16 person and that official or private person shall be a party to the case. An election 17 official or private person may move to dismiss a complaint if it is clearly without 18 merit. If the division finds, in response to a motion, that a complaint is clearly 19 without merit, the division shall dismiss the complaint.

20 (4) If the division does not dismiss a complaint, the division shall issue a 21 proposed decision, which shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law and 22 may include an order under sub. (5).

23 (5) The division may order an election official or a private person to act in 24 conformity with chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 or rules of the 25 board, or may, by order, impose a civil penalty under s. 11.60 or 12.60 (1) (c) or (d),

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 1

1 13.69, or 19.579 for any violation of ch. 11 or 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of 2 ch. 19 for which a civil penalty is applicable.

3 (6) Subject to the procedures under this subsection, the division may, in the 4 discharge of its functions under this section and after providing notice to any party
5 who is the subject of an investigation, subpoena and bring before it any person and 6 require the production of any papers, books, or other records relevant to an
7 investigation. Prior to issuing a subpoena or obtaining a search warrant, the division
8 shall submit a written request for this purpose to the board. If the board does not 9 disapprove the request within 7 days of receiving the request, the division may issue
10 the subpoena or obtain the search warrant. A circuit court may by order permit the 11 inspection and copying of the accounts and the depositor's and loan records at any 12 financial institution, as defined in s. 705.01 (3), doing business in this state to obtain
13 evidence of any violation of ch. 11 or 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 14 upon a showing by the division of probable cause to believe there is a violation and 15 that such accounts and records may have a substantial relation to the violation. In 16 the discharge of its functions under this section, the division may cause the 17 deposition of witnesses to be taken in the manner prescribed for taking depositions 18 in civil actions in circuit court.

19 (7) If the division issues a decision under sub. (4) that contains an order under 20 sub. (5), the order is effective upon service of the order notwithstanding any appeal
21 to the board under sub. (8) or to circuit court under sub. (11), except that the division
22 may stay such an order pending an appeal.

23 (8) Any party aggrieved by a proposed decision under sub. (4) may appeal the 24 proposed decision to the board within 20 days after service of a copy of the decision
25 upon the party. If no appeal is filed within 20 days of service of a copy of a proposed

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 1SECTION 14

1 decision upon each party to the case in which the decision is made, the decision is
2 final and becomes the decision of the board. In appealing a decision of the division,
3 the appellant shall indicate in its appeal whether the appellant contests any finding 4 of fact made by the division. If an appellant does not contest a finding of fact, the 5 validity of which is reasonably ascertainable to the appellant at the time of the 6 appeal, that finding is conclusive against the appellant in all subsequent 7 proceedings.

8 (9) If a proposed decision of the division is appealed to the board, the board shall 9 hear the appeal at its next meeting occurring at least 3 working days after the appeal
10 is received by the board. In reviewing the decision of the division, the board is not 11 bound by any finding of fact that is contested or any conclusion of law made by the 12 division. After hearing the appeal, the board may issue a decision, which shall 13 include findings of fact and conclusions of law. In its decision, the board may affirm, 14 modify, or reverse an order issued by the division under sub. (5), and may order an 15 election official or a private person to act in conformity with chs. 5 to 12, subch. III
16 of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 or rules of the board, or may, by order, impose a civil 17 penalty under s. 11.60, 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 13.69, or 19.579 for any violation of ch. 11
18 or 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 for which a civil penalty is applicable.
19 If the board does not modify or reverse a decision of the division at the meeting at 20 which an appeal of a decision is heard, the decision is affirmed.

21 (10) If a person aggrieved by a decision issued under sub. (4) that contains an 22 order under sub. (5) appeals the decision to the board and the board modifies the 23 order, the modified order is effective upon service, except that the division may stay
24 such an order pending judicial review under s. 227.57.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 1

1 (11) The defendant may appeal any decision of the division or the board in a
2 contested case arising under this section as provided in s. 227.57. If the board
3 modifies or reverses an order issued by the division under sub. (5), the division may 4 seek judicial review of the decision. In seeking judicial review of a decision of the 5 division or the board, the appellant shall indicate in its petition for review whether 6 the appellant contests any finding of fact made by the division or the board that is 7 not conclusive against the appellant. If the appellant does not contest any finding 8 of fact made by the division or the board, that finding is conclusive against the 9 appellant.

10 (12) When the enforcement division issues an order imposing a forfeiture
11 under sub. (2) or s. 11.60, 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 13.69, or 19.579 that is not appealed in 12 a timely manner under sub. (8) or (11), or when the board issues an order imposing 13 a forfeiture under sub. (2) or s. 11.60, 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 13.69, or 19.579 and the
