Our Mission

The mission of the Whitnall School District is to prepare our children to be lifelong learners by providing quality education through a cooperative relationship of school, home and community, enabling them to meet future challenges and to be contributing members of society.

My name is Russell (Russ) Kaeske. I am married to Sue, a school psychologist, and we have two children who attend college. Both of our children were graduates of the Whitnall School District. My BS Degree is from UW - LaCrosse. I have done post graduate work at UWM, Marquette, and Cardinal Stritch Universities.

Professionally, I taught in the Milwaukee Public Schools for 34 years. In that role I had the opportunity to serve as a unit leader, school to work implementor and a basketball coach in both the elementary and middle school levels.

I am a resident of Hales Corners and serve on the Hales Corners Recreation Board. I have also served as a Lutheran Education Director, and I am a member of the Fish Creek Community Church.

Currently, I am the Vice-President of the Whitnall School Board and I have also held the positions of President and Treasurer. This is my third term on the School Board, and I've chaired the School Board Curriculum Committee, the Finance Committee, the Legislative Committee, and the 220 Committee. I have also been a member of the WASB's Policy Committee.

Phone: 1-414-529-1287

Term expires in 2005.
