Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law regulates telephone solicitation, defined as the unsolicited initiation of a telephone conversation for the purpose of encouraging the recipient of the telephone call to purchase property, goods, or services. Generally, under current law, a telephone solicitor may not make a telephone solicitation to a residential customer if the customer's telephone number is included in a directory, maintained by the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP), listing residential customers who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations. This bill alters current law regarding telephone solicitations as follows:

1. Current law regulates telephone solicitations made to traditional "land line" customers. This bill expands the current provisions to include solicitations made to persons who have cellular telephone service. As a result, under the bill, cellular telephone numbers may be included in the directory of customers who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations, and telephone solicitors may not make telephone solicitations to such cellular telephone numbers.

2. Current law allows only individuals to request inclusion in the directory. Under the bill, a small business, as defined in the bill, may request inclusion of a land line number or cellular telephone number in the directory.

3. Under current law, a telephone solicitor may not make a telephone solicitation to a nonresidential customer if the customer has notified the solicitor by mail that the customer does not wish to receive telephone solicitations. Under the bill, a telephone solicitor is prohibited from making a telephone solicitation to a customer who has verbally informed the solicitor that the customer does not wish to receive telephone solicitations.

4. Under current law, the penalty for a violation of the restrictions on telephone solicitations is a forfeiture not to exceed $100. The bill increases the penalty to a forfeiture of not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000. The bill also permits a person who suffers damages as a result of a violation to bring an action for injunctive relief and for actual damages or $500 per violation, whichever is greater.

5. Under current law, the registration fee DATCP charges telephone solicitors must be based on the cost of maintaining the nonsolicitation directory. Under the bill, DATCP must collect the registration fee in quarterly installments, but DATCP must reduce or waive installments if DATCP estimates that, at the end of the fiscal year, its fee collections will exceed expenditures for maintaining the nonsolicitation directory by 15 percent or more.

Current law also prohibits facsimile solicitations without the consent of the recipient, except under certain conditions. Also, a facsimile solicitor must honor a recipient's written or facsimile request not to receive facsimile solicitations and may not disclose the recipient's facsimile number to another. Under current law, district attorneys are authorized to enforce these provisions through forfeiture actions. Under this bill, no facsimile solicitation may be sent without the recipient's consent. The bill transfers enforcement and administrative authority to DATCP.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
