Representative Young:

I could not find a bill that defined hardship<sup>in</sup> in the <sup>context</sup> of a residency requirement. There have been bills that <sup>explicitly</sup> explicitly exempt a husband and wife who are employed by different governmental units both of which have employee residency requirements. See <sup>for example</sup> 1999 AB 784.

If you wish, I would incorporate that into the amendment or provide that undue hardship<sup>in</sup> means significant difficulty or expense.
