Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill provides that a court may order a person to register with the Department of Corrections as a sex offender if the person is convicted, adjudicated delinquent, found in need of protection or services, or found not guilty or not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect for committing video voyeurism and the court determines that the offense was sexually motivated.

This bill is not anticipated to have a fiscal effect on the Department of Health and Family Services or local government entities.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
