Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a not-for-profit, religious, charitable, service, fraternal, or veterans organization that serves a geographic area that is limited to Wisconsin and that has existed for at least one year or is chartered by a state or national organization that has existed for at least three years may obtain a license to conduct raffles. The fee for a raffle license is $25. An organization holding a raffle license may conduct up to 200 raffles in a 12-month period.

This bill creates a multiuser raffle license. Any organization that is eligible for a raffle license may obtain a multiuser raffle license. Under the bill, any chapter of an organization that holds a multiuser raffle license may conduct raffles under the license as long as the chapter independently satisfies the requirements to obtain a raffle license and is under the supervision of the organization that holds the license. The bill establishes a $500 fee for a multiuser raffle license. Finally, the bill provides that the organization that holds a multiuser raffle license, as well any chapter that may conduct raffles under the multiuser raffle license, may each conduct not more than 200 raffles in a 12-month period.
