

2007 SENATE BILL 21

February 1, 2007 – Introduced by Senators HANSEN, WIRCH, LEHMAN and SULLIVAN, cosponsored by Representatives BIES, SOLETSKI, ALBERS, BALLWEG, FRISKE, GUNDERSON, HAHN, HINES, KERKMAN, MUSSER, SEIDEL, SHERIDAN, TOWNSEND and WASSERMAN. Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Corrections.

1 AN ACT to amend 62.13 (5) (i) of the statutes; relating to: disciplinary
2 procedures for certain local law enforcement officers and fire fighters.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Generally, under current law, a law enforcement officer or fire fighter employed by a city, village, town, or county (local public safety officer) may be disciplined by a police or fire chief, sheriff, county board, civil service commission, grievance committee, or board of police and fire commissioners, depending on the unit of government for which the officer works and whether the county for which the officer works has in effect a civil service system. Discipline, under current law, includes suspension, reduction in rank, suspension and reduction in rank, and dismissal.

Also under current law, except with regard to police officers and fire fighters employed by a first class city (presently only Milwaukee), no local public safety officer may be suspended, reduced in rank, suspended and reduced in rank, or dismissed by a grievance committee, civil service commission, county board, or board of police and fire commissioners (tribunal) unless the tribunal determines that there is “just cause,” as described in the statutes, to sustain the charges that have been brought against the local public safety officer. If the charges are sustained and the officer is disciplined under an order of the tribunal, he or she may appeal the order to the circuit court, except that a county law enforcement officer, under a recent decision of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, may proceed either with an appeal to the circuit court or with the grievance procedures, including arbitration, in the officer’s collective bargaining agreement. The trial based on the appeal is before the court. The court must determine whether, upon the evidence and based on the statutory description of “just cause,” to sustain the charges against the accused officer and the tribunal’s order. If the charges and the tribunal’s order are sustained, the tribunal’s order is final and conclusive. If the court reverses the tribunal’s order, the officer is reinstated and entitled to pay as though he or she were in continuous service. Similar procedures, other than the “just cause” standard, apply to police officers employed by a first class city.

Under this bill, for city, village, or town public safety officers, if an accused officer is subject to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement that provides an alternative to the appeal process to a circuit court, the appeal process in the collective bargaining agreement applies to the accused officer and not the current law process that involves an appeal to a circuit court, unless the officer chooses to appeal the tribunal’s decision to a circuit court. If the alternative to the appeals process includes a hearing, the hearing must be open to the public. An accused officer who chooses to appeal the tribunal’s decision through a collectively bargained alternative to the current law appeal process is considered to have waived his or her right to circuit court review of the tribunal’s decision. The provisions of this bill do not apply to police officers or fire fighters employed by a first class city.
