Analysis by the Legislative Reference BureauIntroduction

Under current law, the federal Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), which governs jurisdiction over child custody proceedings involving an Indian child and provides certain minimum standards for those proceedings, supercedes the provisions of the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code in any child custody proceeding governed by ICWA. For purposes of ICWA, "child custody proceeding" means any of the following:

1. Any action removing an Indian child from his or her parent or Indian custodian, that is, an Indian person who has legal custody of an Indian child under tribal law or custom or state law or to whom temporary physical custody of an Indian child has been transferred by the Indian child's parent, for temporary placement in a foster home or institution, in which the parent or Indian custodian cannot have the Indian child removed on demand, but not including a placement that is based on an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult (out-of-home care placement).
2. A termination of parental rights (TPR) proceeding.
3. A temporary placement of an Indian child in a foster home or institution after a TPR, but prior to or in lieu of an adoptive placement (preadoptive placement).
4. An adoptive placement.

This bill incorporates the jurisdictional provisions of ICWA and the minimum standards for Indian child custody proceedings established by ICWA into the provisions of the Children's Code relating to child in need of protection or services (CHIPS), TPR, and adoption proceedings and the provisions of the Juvenile Justice Code relating to juvenile in need of protection or services (JIPS) proceedings, other than proceedings that are based on the commission of an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult.

Jurisdiction

Under ICWA, an Indian tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over an Indian child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled within the reservation of the tribe and over an Indian child who is a ward of a tribal court, regardless of the residence or domicile of the Indian child, except when jurisdiction is otherwise vested in the state by federal law. This grant of jurisdiction, however, does not prevent the emergency removal of an Indian child who resides or is domiciled on a reservation, but who is temporarily located off the reservation, from his or her parent or Indian custodian in order to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the Indian child.

Also, under ICWA, a state court is required to transfer a proceeding involving an out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child who is not residing or domiciled within the reservation of the Indian child's tribe to the jurisdiction of the Indian child's tribe upon the petition of the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe, unless a parent of the Indian child objects, the tribal court declines jurisdiction, or the state court finds good cause not to transfer the proceeding. In addition, ICWA permits an Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to intervene at any point in an Indian child custody proceeding in state court involving the out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, the Indian child.

Finally, with respect to jurisdiction over an Indian child custody proceeding, ICWA requires a state court to decline jurisdiction and to forthwith return an Indian child to his or her parent or Indian custodian, unless returning the Indian child would subject the Indian child to a substantial and immediate danger or threat of danger, when a petitioner in an Indian child custody proceeding has improperly removed the Indian child from the custody of his or her parent or Indian custodian or has improperly retained custody after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of custody.

This bill incorporates those jurisdictional provisions of ICWA into the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code. The bill also does all of the following:

1. Specifies that the provisions of ICWA and of the Children's Code and Juvenile Justice Code relating to Indian child custody proceedings apply to any Indian child custody proceeding regardless of whether the Indian child is in the custody of an Indian parent, Indian custodian, extended family member, or other person at the commencement of the proceeding and whether the Indian child resides or is domiciled on or off a reservation.

2. Prohibits a court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code (juvenile court) from determining whether those provisions apply to an Indian child custody proceeding based on whether the Indian child is part of an existing Indian family.

3. Permits a juvenile court to find good cause to deny transfer of a proceeding to an Indian child's tribe only if it is shown that the Indian child is 12 years of age or over and objects to the transfer or that the evidence or testimony necessary to decide the case cannot be presented in tribal court without undue hardship to the parties or the witnesses and that the tribal court is unable to mitigate the hardship by making arrangements to receive the evidence or testimony by use of telephone or live audiovisual means, by hearing the evidence or testimony at a location that is convenient to the parties and witnesses, or by use of other means permissible under the tribal court's rules of evidence.

Out-of-homecare placements and TPR proceedings

ICWA requires a party seeking an out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child in an involuntary proceeding in state court to notify the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, and tribe, by registered mail with return receipt requested, of the proceeding and of their right to intervene in the proceeding. Under ICWA, if the identity or location of the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe cannot be determined, notice of the proceeding must be provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior, who then has 15 days after receipt of the notice to provide the notice to the parent, Indian custodian, and tribe. ICWA prohibits an out-of-home care placement or TPR proceeding from being heard until at least ten days after receipt of notice by the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe or by the U.S. secretary of the interior and permits a parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to request up to 20 additional days to prepare for the proceeding.

This bill requires an Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, and tribe to be notified of a CHIPS, JIPS, or TPR proceeding involving the Indian child, of a change in placement in a CHIPS or JIPS proceeding involving the Indian child, or of a hearing to determine or review the permanency plan for the Indian child by certified mail for the first hearing at the plea, fact-finding, and dispositional stages of a proceeding and by mail, personal delivery, or facsimile transmission, but not electronic mail, for subsequent hearings in a stage of a proceeding. (A permanency plan is a plan designed to ensure that a child is reunified with his or her family whenever appropriate or that the child quickly attains a placement providing long-term stability.) The bill prohibits a CHIPS, JIPS, or TPR hearing, a change in placement hearing, or a permanency plan determination or review hearing from being held until at least ten days after receipt of notice of the hearing by the parent, Indian custodian, or tribe or until at least 25 days after receipt of notice of the hearing by the U.S. secretary of the interior and permits a parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to request up to 20 additional days to prepare for the hearing.

Under ICWA, a parent or Indian custodian who is indigent has the right to court-appointed counsel in any proceeding involving the removal of an Indian child from his or her home, placement of an Indian child in an out-of-home care placement, or TPR to an Indian child. This bill incorporates that right into the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code with respect to a parent 18 years of age or over or an Indian custodian. With respect to a parent under 18 years of age, the bill retains current law, which provides for the appointment of counsel without a determination of indigency.

ICWA requires a party seeking to effect an out-of-home care placement of, or a TPR to, an Indian child to satisfy the state court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitation programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. ICWA also prohibits a state court from ordering an out-of-home care placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child in the absence of a determination, supported by clear and convincing evidence in the case of out-of-home care placement and by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in the case of TPR, including the testimony of qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child by his or her parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child.

This bill requires a CHIPS or JIPS order or a change in placement order removing an Indian child from his or her home and placing the Indian child outside the home to include a finding by the juvenile court or jury, supported by clear and convincing evidence, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child by his or her parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the Indian child and a finding, supported by clear and convincing evidence that the agency primarily responsible for providing services to the Indian child has made active efforts to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. The bill also requires the juvenile court or jury in a TPR proceeding to determine if it is proved beyond a reasonable doubt, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child and if it is proved beyond a reasonable doubt that active efforts have been made to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. In addition, the bill requires an order extending a CHIPS or JIPS dispositional order for an Indian child who is placed outside the home and a summary of a permanency plan review for such a child to include a determination as to whether active efforts were made to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and as to whether those efforts have proved unsuccessful.

The bill also changes current law with respect to the grounds for involuntary TPR. Specifically, current law provides various grounds for involuntary TPR, including abandonment, continuing need of protection or services (continuing CHIPS), continuing parental disability, continuing denial of physical placement or visitation, child abuse, and failure to assume parental responsibility. Currently, one of the elements that must be proved to establish continuing CHIPS is that the agency responsible for the care of the child and the family has made a reasonable effort to provide the services ordered by the juvenile court. Currently, "reasonable effort" is defined as an earnest and conscientious effort to take good faith steps to provide the services ordered by the juvenile court which takes into consideration the characteristics of the parent or child, the level of cooperation of the parent, and other relevant circumstances. This bill requires those efforts to be proved to establish any involuntary TPR ground.

The bill defines a "qualified expert witness" as a person who is a member of the Indian child's tribe knowledgeable in the tribe's customs relating to family organization or child-rearing practices, a member of another tribe who is knowledgeable in those customs, a professional person having extensive knowledge of those customs, or a layperson having substantial knowledge of those customs and requires a qualified expert witness to be chosen in that order of preference. The bill also specifies that the evidence of active efforts to prevent the breakup of the Indian family must show that there has been a vigorous and concerted level of case work beyond the level that typically constitutes reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the home and requires the active efforts to be made in a manner that takes into account the prevailing social and cultural values, conditions, and way of life of the Indian child's tribe and to utilize the available resources of the Indian child's tribe, tribal and other Indian child welfare agencies, extended family members, and other individual Indian caregivers.

ICWA further requires an Indian child who is accepted for an out-of-home care placement or a preadoptive placement to be placed in the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the Indian child's special needs, if any, may be met and requires an Indian child to be placed within reasonable proximity to his or her home, taking into account any special needs of the Indian child. ICWA also requires that a preference be given, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to a placement with a member of the Indian child's extended family, a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe, an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority, or an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference. ICWA also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of ICWA are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family resides or with which the parent or extended family maintains social and cultural ties.

This bill requires the juvenile court, in placing or changing the placement of an Indian child who is in need of protection or services or in placing an Indian child in a preadoptive placement following a TPR, to designate one of the following as the placement for the Indian child, in the order of preference listed, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference or good cause is shown for departing from that order of preference:

1. The home of an extended family member of the Indian child.
2. A foster home or treatment foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe.
3. An Indian foster home or treatment foster home licensed or approved by the Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS), a county department of human services or social services (county department), or a child welfare agency.
4. A group home or residential care center for children and youth approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the needs of the Indian child.

The bill requires the juvenile court to designate a placement that is the least restrictive setting that most approximates a family, that meets the Indian child's special needs, if any, and that is within reasonable proximity to the Indian child's home, taking into account the Indian child's special needs. The bill also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of the bill are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family members reside or with which the parent or extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

In addition, the bill requires a determination as to whether there is good cause to depart from the order of placement preference requirements of the bill to be based on: 1) the request of a parent or, if the Indian child is of sufficient age and developmental level to make an informed decision, the Indian child, unless the request is made for the purpose of avoiding the application of the bill and ICWA; 2) any extraordinary physical, mental, or emotional health needs of the Indian child requiring highly specialized treatment services as established by the testimony of an expert witness, including a qualified expert witness; and 3) the unavailability of a suitable placement after active efforts have been made to place the child in accordance with those order of placement preference requirements.

Finally, with respect to involuntary out-of-home care placements and TPR proceedings, ICWA permits the Indian child or the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe to petition any court of competent jurisdiction to invalidate an out-of-home care placement or TPR upon a showing that the placement or TPR violated any provision of ICWA relating to out-of-home care placements or TPR.

This bill permits any Indian child who is the subject of an out-of-home care placement or of a TPR proceeding, any parent or Indian custodian of that Indian child, or the Indian child's tribe to move the juvenile court to invalidate that out-of-home care placement or TPR on the grounds that the out-of-home care placement was made or the TPR was ordered in violation of any provision of the bill or of ICWA relating to out-of-home care placements or TPR. If the juvenile court finds that those grounds exist, the juvenile court must invalidate the out-of-home care placement or TPR.

Voluntary out-of-home care placements or TPR; consent; withdrawal

Under ICWA, the consent of a parent to an out-of-home care placement of, or a TPR to, an Indian child is not valid unless executed in writing, recorded before a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction, and accompanied by the judge's certification that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail and were fully understood by the parent. ICWA also requires the court to certify that the parent fully understood the explanation in English or that the explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent understood. Under ICWA, any consent given prior to, or within ten days after, the birth of an Indian child, is not valid. ICWA permits a parent to withdraw his or her consent to a TPR for any reason prior to the entry of a final decree of TPR, or to withdraw his or her consent to an out-of-home care placement at any time, and the Indian child must be returned to the parent. After the entry of a final decree of adoption of an Indian child, the Indian child's parent may withdraw consent to the adoption of the Indian child on the grounds of fraud or duress and may petition the court to vacate the decree. If the court finds that the consent was obtained through fraud or duress, the court must vacate the decree and return the Indian child to his or her parent, except that no adoption that has been effective for at least two years may be invalidated by the withdrawal of consent on the grounds of fraud or duress.

BILL

This bill provides that a voluntary consent to an out-of-home care or placement of, or TPR to, an Indian child is valid only if the consent is executed in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by a written certification by the judge that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail to and were fully understood by the parent. The bill also requires the judge to certify that the parent fully understood the explanation in English or that the explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent understood. Under the bill, any consent to an out-of-home care placement or TPR given prior to or within ten days after the birth of an Indian child is not valid.

The bill permits a parent who has consented to TPR to an Indian child to withdraw the consent for any reason at any time prior to the entry of a final order terminating parental rights, or a parent who has consented to an out-of-home care placement of an Indian child to withdraw that consent at any time, and the Indian child must be returned to his or her parent. After the entry of a final order granting adoption, a parent who has consented to TPR to an Indian child may withdraw that consent and move the juvenile court for relief from the order on the grounds that the consent was obtained through fraud or duress, if the motion is filed within two years after the entry of an order granting adoption of the Indian child. If the juvenile court finds that the consent was obtained through fraud or duress, the juvenile court must vacate the TPR order and, if applicable, the order granting adoption.

Adoption

ICWA requires, when an Indian child is placed for adoption, that a preference be given, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to a placement with a member of the Indian child's extended family, other members of the Indian child's tribe, or other Indian families, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference. ICWA also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of ICWA are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family resides or with which the parent or extended family maintains social and cultural ties.

This bill requires DHFS, a county department, or a child welfare agency, in placing an Indian child for adoption or in investigating or making a recommendation regarding the adoptive placement of an Indian child, and a juvenile court, in determining whether an adoptive placement is in the best interests of an Indian child, to give preference to a placement with one of the following, in the order of preference listed, unless the Indian child's tribe has established a different order of preference or good cause is shown for departing from that order of preference:

1. An extended family member of the Indian child.
2. Another member of the Indian child's tribe.
3. Another Indian family.

The bill also specifies that the standards to be applied in meeting the placement preference requirements of the bill are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parent or extended family members reside or with which the parent or extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

BILL

In addition, the bill requires a determination as to whether there is good cause to depart from the order of placement preference requirements of the bill to be based on: 1) the request of a parent or, if the Indian child is of sufficient age and developmental level to make an informed decision, the Indian child, unless the request is made for the purpose of avoiding the application of the bill and ICWA; 2) any extraordinary physical, mental, or emotional health needs of the Indian child requiring highly specialized treatment services as established by a qualified expert witness; and 3) the unavailability of a suitable placement after active efforts have been made to place the child in accordance with those order of placement preference requirements.

ICWA permits a biological parent or former Indian custodian of an Indian child who has been adopted to petition for return of custody of the Indian child when a final decree of adoption of the Indian child has been vacated or set aside or when the adoptive parents of the Indian child voluntarily consent to TPR to the Indian child. Under ICWA, the state court must grant the petition unless there is a showing that return of custody is not in the best interests of the Indian child.

This bill requires a juvenile court that vacates or sets aside a final order granting adoption of an Indian child or that grants an order voluntarily terminating parental rights to an Indian child of all adoptive parents of the Indian child to notify the Indian child's former parent and former Indian custodian, and the former parent or former Indian custodian may petition for the return of custody of the Indian child. The juvenile court must grant the petition unless there is a showing of good cause that return of custody is not in the best interest of the Indian child.

Finally, ICWA requires a state court that enters a final decree of adoption of an Indian child to: 1) provide the U.S. secretary of the interior with a copy of the decree, together with such other information as may be necessary to show the name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child, the names and addresses of the Indian child's biological parents, the names and addresses of the Indian child's adoptive parents, and the identity of any agency having files or information relating to the adoptive placement of the Indian child; and 2) inform an Indian individual who has reached the age of 18 years and who was the subject of an adoptive placement, upon application, of the tribal affiliation, if any, of the individual's biological parents and with such other information as may be necessary to protect any rights flowing from the individual's tribal relationship. ICWA also provides that, when a biological parent has filed an affidavit requesting that his or her identity remain confidential, the court must include that affidavit with the information provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior.

This bill requires a juvenile court that enters an order granting adoption of an Indian child to: 1) provide the U.S. secretary of the interior with a copy of the order, together with such other records and papers pertaining to the adoption proceeding as may be necessary to provide that secretary with the name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child, the names and addresses of the Indian child's birth parents, the names and addresses of the Indian child's adoptive parents, and the identity of any agency that has in its possession any files or information relating to the adoptive placement of the Indian child; 2) give the birth parent an opportunity to file an affidavit indicating that the birth parent wishes the U.S. secretary of the interior to maintain the confidentiality of the birth parent's identity and include that affidavit with the information provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior; and 3) provide or arrange to provide an Indian adoptee who is 18 years of age or older, upon request, with the tribal affiliation, if any, of the adoptee's birth parents and with such other information as may be necessary to protect any rights accruing to the adoptee as a result of that affiliation.

7 1. Establishing minimum standards for the removal of Indian children from 8 their families and placing those children in out-of-home care placements, 9 preadoptive placements, or adoptive placements that will reflect the unique value of 10 Indian culture.

11 2. Using practices, in accordance with the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25
12 USC 1901 to 1963, this section, and other applicable law, that are designed to prevent 13 the voluntary or involuntary out-of-home care placement of Indian children and,

BILL

1 (g) “Qualified expert witness” means a person who is any of the following:

6 the Indian child’s tribe relating to family organization or child-rearing practices.

7 3. A professional person having substantial education and experience in the 11 4. A layperson having substantial experience in the delivery of child and family 12 services to Indians and substantial knowledge of the prevailing social and cultural 13 standards and child-rearing practices of the Indian child’s tribe.

14 (3) JURISDICTION OVER INDIAN CHILD CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS. (a) Applicability.
15 This section and the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 USC 1901 to 1963, apply 16 to any Indian child custody proceeding regardless of whether the Indian child is in 17 the legal custody or physical custody of an Indian parent, Indian custodian, extended 18 family member, or other person at the commencement of the proceeding and whether 19 the Indian child resides or is domiciled on or off of a reservation. A court assigned 20 to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter may not determine whether this section
21 and the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 USC 1901 to 1963, apply to an Indian 22 child custody proceeding based on whether the Indian child is part of an existing 23 Indian family.

24 (b) Exclusive tribal jurisdiction. 1. An Indian tribe shall have exclusive 25 jurisdiction over any Indian child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who

BILL

1 resides or is domiciled within the reservation of the tribe, except when that 2 jurisdiction is otherwise vested in the state by federal law and except as provided in 3 subd. 2. If an Indian child is a ward of a tribal court, the Indian tribe shall retain 4 exclusive jurisdiction regardless of the residence or domicile of the child.

5 2. Subdivision 1. does not prevent an Indian child who resides or is domiciled 6 within a reservation, but who is temporarily located off the reservation, from being 7 taken into and held in custody under ss. 48.19 to 48.21 in order to prevent imminent
8 physical harm or damage to the Indian child. The person taking the Indian child into 9 custody or the intake worker shall immediately release the Indian child from custody
10 upon determining that holding the Indian child in custody is no longer necessary to 11 prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the Indian child and shall 12 expeditiously restore the Indian child to his or her parent or Indian custodian, 13 release the Indian child to an appropriate official of the Indian child's tribe, or 14 initiate an Indian child custody proceeding, as may be appropriate.

15 (c) Transfer of proceedings to tribe. In any Indian child custody proceeding 16 under this chapter involving an out-of-home placement of, or termination of 17 parental rights to, an Indian child who is not residing or domiciled within the 18 reservation of the Indian child's tribe, the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction
19 under this chapter shall, upon the petition of the Indian child's parent, Indian 20 custodian, or tribe, transfer the proceeding to the jurisdiction of the tribe unless any 21 of the following applies:

- 22 1. A parent of the Indian child objects to the transfer.
- 23 2. The Indian child's tribe does not have a tribal court or tribal court of the 24 Indian child's tribe declines jurisdiction.

BILL

1 3. The court determines that good cause exists to deny the transfer. The court
2 may determine that good cause exists to deny the transfer only if the person opposing 3 the transfer shows to the satisfaction of the court any of the following:

4 a. That the Indian child is 12 years of age or over and objects to the transfer.

5 b. That the evidence or testimony necessary to decide the case cannot be 6 presented in tribal court without undue hardship to the parties or the witnesses and 7 that the tribal court is unable to mitigate the hardship by making arrangements to 8 receive the evidence or testimony by use of telephone or live audiovisual means, by 9 hearing the evidence or testimony at a location that is convenient to the parties and 10 witnesses, or by use of other means permissible under the tribal court's rules of 11 evidence.

12 (d) Declination of jurisdiction. If the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction
13 under this chapter determines that the petitioner in an Indian child custody
14 proceeding has improperly removed the Indian child from the custody of his or her
15 parent or Indian custodian or has improperly retained custody of the Indian child
16 after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of custody, the court shall decline
17 jurisdiction over the petition and immediately return the Indian child to the custody
18 of the parent or Indian custodian, unless the court determines that returning the 19 Indian child to his or her parent or Indian custodian would subject the Indian child 20 to substantial and immediate danger or the threat of that danger.

21 (e) Intervention. An Indian child's Indian custodian or tribe may intervene at 22 any point in an Indian child custody proceeding under this chapter involving an 23 out-of-home care placement of, or termination of parental rights to, the Indian child.

24 (f) Full faith and credit. The state shall give full faith and credit to the public
25 acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any Indian tribe that are applicable to an

BILL

1 Indian child custody proceeding to the same extent that the state gives full faith and 2 credit to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of any other governmental 3 entity.

4 (4) COURT PROCEEDINGS. (a) Notice. In any involuntary proceeding involving 5 the out-of-home care placement of, termination of parental rights to, or return of 6 custody under sub. (8) (a) of a child whom the court knows or has reason to know is 7 an Indian child, the court or party seeking the out-of-home care placement, 8 termination of parental rights, or return of custody shall, for the first hearing at the 9 plea, fact-finding, and dispositional stages of the proceeding, notify the Indian 10 child's parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, and tribe, 11 by certified mail of the pending proceeding and of their right to intervene in the 12 proceeding. Notice of subsequent hearings in a stage of a proceeding shall be in 13 writing and may be given by mail, personal delivery, or facsimile transmission, but 14 not by electronic mail. If the identity or location of the Indian child's parent, former 15 parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, or tribe cannot be determined,
16 that notice shall be given to the U.S. secretary of the interior in like manner. The next 17 hearing in the proceeding may not be held until at least 10 days after receipt of the 18 notice by the parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian custodian, and 19 tribe or until at least 25 days after receipt of the notice by the U.S. secretary of the 20 interior. On request of the parent, former parent, Indian custodian, former Indian 21 custodian, or tribe, the court shall grant a continuance of up to 20 additional days
22 to enable the requester to prepare for that hearing.

23 (b) Appointment of counsel. Whenever an Indian child is the subject of a
24 proceeding involving the removal of the Indian child from his or her home, placement
25 of the Indian child in an out-of-home care placement or termination of parental

BILL

1 rights to the Indian child, the Indian child's parent or Indian custodian shall have 2 the right to be represented by court-appointed counsel as provided in s. 48.23 (2g).
3 The court may also, in its discretion, appoint counsel for the Indian child under s.
4 48.23 (1m) or (3) if the court finds that the appointment is in the best interests of the 5 Indian child.

6 (c) Examination of reports and other documents. Each party to a proceeding 7 involving the out-of-home care placement of, termination of parental rights to, or 8 return of custody under sub. (8) (a) of an Indian child shall have the right to examine 9 all reports or other documents filed with the court upon which any decision with 10 respect to the out-of-home care placement, termination of parental rights, or return 11 of custody may be based.

12 (d) Out-of-home care placement; serious damage and active efforts. The court
13 may not order an Indian child to be removed from the Indian child's home and placed 14 in an out-of-home care placement unless all of the following occur:

15 1. The court or jury finds by clear and convincing evidence, including the 16 testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses chosen in the order of preference
17 listed in par. (f), that continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian 18 custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

19 2. The court or jury finds by clear and convincing evidence that active efforts, 20 as described in par. (g), have been made to provide remedial services and 21 rehabilitation programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and 22 that those efforts have proved unsuccessful. The court shall make that finding 23 notwithstanding that a circumstance specified in s. 48.355 (2d) (b) 1. to 5. applies.

BILL

1 (e) Involuntary termination of parental rights; serious damage and active
2 efforts. The court may not order an involuntary termination of parental rights to an
3 Indian child unless all of the following occur:

4 1. The court or jury finds beyond a reasonable doubt, including the testimony 5 of one or more qualified expert witnesses chosen in the order of preference listed in 6 par. (f), that the continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian
7 custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

8 2. The court or jury finds beyond a reasonable doubt that active efforts, as 9 described in par. (g), have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitation
10 programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts 11 have proved unsuccessful.

12 (f) Qualified expert witness; order of preference. A qualified expert witness shall 13 be chosen in the following order of preference:

14 1. A member of the Indian child's tribe described in sub. (2) (g) 1.

15 2. A member of another tribe described in sub. (2) (g) 2.

16 3. A professional person described in sub. (2) (g) 3.

17 4. A layperson described in sub. (2) (g) 4.

18 (g) Active efforts standard. The court may not order an Indian child to be placed 19 in an out-of-home care placement or order an involuntary termination of parental
20 rights to an Indian child unless the evidence of active efforts under par. (d) 2. or (e) 21 2. shows that there has been a vigorous and concerted level of case work beyond the 22 level that typically constitutes reasonable efforts, as described in s. 48.355 (2c), or 23 an earnest and conscientious effort, as in s. 48.415 (intro.). The active efforts shall 24 be made in a manner that takes into account the prevailing social and cultural 25 values, conditions, and way of life of the Indian child's tribe and that utilizes the

BILL

1 available resources of the Indian child's tribe, tribal and other Indian child welfare
2 agencies, extended family members of the Indian child, and other individual Indian
3 caregivers. The court's consideration of whether active efforts were made under par.
4 (d) 2. or (e) 2. shall include whether all of the following activities were conducted:

5 1. The Indian child's tribe was requested to convene traditional and customary 6 support, actions, and services to resolve the Indian family's issues.

7 2. Representatives of the Indian child's tribe were identified, notified, and 8 invited to participate in all aspects of the Indian child custody proceeding at the 9 earliest possible point in the proceeding.

10 3. Extended family members of the Indian child were consulted to identify and 11 provide family structure and support for the Indian child.

12 4. Frequent visitation was made to the Indian child's home.

13 5. Contact was made with extended family members of the Indian child to 14 assure appropriate cultural connections.

15 6. All family preservation alternatives appropriate to the Indian child's tribe 16 were exhausted.

17 7. Community resources offering housing, financial, and transportation 18 assistance were identified, information about those resources was provided to the 19 Indian family, and the Indian family was actively assisted in accessing those 20 resources.

21 (5) VOLUNTARY PROCEEDINGS; CONSENT; WITHDRAWAL. (a) Out-of-home care
22 placement. A voluntary consent by a parent or Indian custodian to an out-of-home
23 care placement of an Indian child under s. 48.63 (1) or (5) (b) is not valid unless the 24 consent is executed in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by a written 25 certification by the judge that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully

BILL

1 explained in detail to and were fully understood by the parent or Indian custodian.
2 The judge shall also certify that the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the 3 explanation in English or that the explanation was interpreted into a language that 4 the parent or Indian custodian understood. Any consent given under this paragraph 5 prior to or within 10 days after the birth of the Indian child is not valid. A parent or 6 Indian custodian who has executed a consent under this paragraph may withdraw 7 the consent for any reason at any time, and the Indian child shall be returned to the 8 parent or Indian custodian. A parent or Indian custodian who has executed a consent
9 under this paragraph may also move to invalidate the out-of-home care placement 10 under sub. (6).

11 (b) Termination of parental rights. A voluntary consent by a parent to a 12 termination of parental rights under s. 48.41 (2) (e) is not valid unless the consent
13 is executed in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by a written 14 certification by the judge that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully 15 explained in detail to and were fully understood by the parent. The judge shall also 16 certify that the parent fully understood the explanation in English or that the 17 explanation was interpreted into a language that the parent understood. Any 18 consent given under this paragraph prior to or within 10 days after the birth of the 19 Indian child is not valid. A parent who has executed a consent under this paragraph 20 may withdraw the consent for any reason at any time prior to the entry of a final 21 order terminating parental rights, and the Indian child shall be returned to his or 22 her parent. After the entry of a final order terminating parental rights, a parent who 23 has executed a consent under this paragraph may withdraw that consent as provided 24 in par. (c), move to invalidate the termination of parental rights under sub. (6), or 25 move for relief from the judgment under s. 48.46 (2).

BILL

1 (c) Withdrawal of consent after order granting adoption. After the entry of a 2 final order granting adoption of an Indian child, a parent who has consented to 3 termination of parental rights under s. 48.41 (2) (e) may withdraw that consent and 4 move the court for relief from the judgment on the grounds that the consent was 5 obtained through fraud or duress. Any such motion shall be filed within 2 years after 6 the entry of an order granting adoption of the Indian child. A motion under this 7 subsection does not affect the finality or suspend the operation of the judgment or 8 order terminating parental rights or granting adoption. If the court finds that the 9 consent was obtained through fraud or duress, the court shall vacate the judgment
10 or order terminating parental rights and, if applicable, the order granting adoption
11 and return the Indian child to the custody of the parent.

12 (6) INVALIDATION OF ACTION. Any Indian child who is the subject of an 13 out-of-home care placement or of a termination of parental rights proceeding, any 14 parent or Indian custodian from whose custody that Indian child was removed, or the 15 Indian child's tribe may move the court to invalidate that out-of-home care
16 placement or termination of parental rights on the grounds that the out-of-home 17 care placement was made or the termination of parental rights was ordered in 18 violation of sub. (3), (4), or (5) or 25 USC 1911, 1912, or 1913. If the court finds that 19 those grounds exist, the court shall invalidate the out-of-home care placement or 20 termination of parental rights.

21 (7) PLACEMENT OF INDIAN CHILD. (a) Adoptive placement; preferences. Subject
22 to pars. (c) and (d), in placing an Indian child for adoption, preference shall be given,
23 in the absence of good cause, as described in par. (e), to the contrary, to a placement 24 with one of the following, in the order of preference listed:

- 25 1. An extended family member of the Indian child.

BILL

1 2. Another member of the Indian child's tribe.

2 3. Another Indian family.

3 (b) Out-of-home care or preadoptive placement; preferences. Any Indian child 4 who is accepted for an out-of-home care placement or a preadoptive placement shall 5 be placed in the least restrictive setting that most approximates a family, that meets 6 the Indian child's special needs, if any, and that is within reasonable proximity to the 7 Indian child's home, taking into account those special needs. Subject to pars. (c) to 8 (e), in placing an Indian child in an out-of-home care placement or a preadoptive 9 placement, preference shall be given, in the absence of good cause, as described in 10 par. (e), to the contrary, to a placement in one of the following, in the order of 11 preference listed:

12 1. The home of an extended family member of the Indian child.

13 2. A foster home or treatment foster home licensed, approved, or specified by 14 the Indian child's tribe.

15 3. An Indian foster home or treatment foster home licensed or approved by the 16 department, a county department, or a child welfare agency.

17 4. A group home or residential care center for children and youth approved by 18 an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable 19 to meet the needs of the Indian child.

20 (c) Tribal or personal preferences. If the Indian child's tribe has established, by 21 resolution, an order of preference that is different from the order specified in par. (a) 22 or (b), the order of preference established by that tribe shall be followed, in the 23 absence of good cause, as described in par. (e), to the contrary, so long as the 24 placement under par. (a) is appropriate for the Indian child's special needs, if any, 25 and the placement under par. (b) is the least restrictive setting appropriate for the

BILL

1 Indian child's needs as specified in par. (b). When appropriate, the preference of the 2 Indian child or parent shall be considered, and, when a parent who has consented
3 to the placement evidences a desire for anonymity, that desire shall be given weight,
4 in determining the placement.

5 (d) Social and cultural standards. The standards to be applied in meeting the 6 placement preference requirements of this subsection shall be the prevailing social 7 and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the Indian child's parents
8 or extended family members reside or with which the Indian child's parents or 9 extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

10 (e) Good cause. 1. Whether there is good cause to depart from the order of 11 placement preference under par. (a), (b), or (c) shall be determined based on any one 12 or more of the following considerations:

13 a. When appropriate, the request of the Indian child's parent or, if the Indian 14 child is of sufficient age and developmental level to make an informed decision, the 15 Indian child, unless the request is made for the purpose of avoiding the application
16 of this section and the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 26 USC 1901 to 1963.

17 b. Any extraordinary physical, mental, or emotional health needs of the Indian 18 child requiring highly specialized treatment services as established by the testimony
19 of an expert witness, including a qualified expert witness. The length of time that 20 an Indian child has been in a placement does not, in itself, constitute an 21 extraordinary emotional health need.

22 c. The unavailability of a suitable placement for the Indian child after active 23 efforts, as described in sub. (4) (g), have been made to place the Indian child in the 24 order of preference under par. (a), (b), or (c).

BILL

1 2. The burden of establishing good cause to depart from the order of placement
2 preference under par. (a), (b), or (c) shall be on the party requesting that departure.

3 (f) Report of placement. The department, a county department, or a child
4 welfare agency shall maintain a record of each adoptive placement, out-of-home
5 care placement, and preadoptive placement made of an Indian child, evidencing the 6 efforts made to comply with the placement preference requirements specified in this 7 subsection, and shall make that record available at any time on the request of the 8 U.S. secretary of the interior or the Indian child's tribe.

9 (8) RETURN OF CUSTODY. (a) Adoption vacated, set aside, or terminated. 1. If 10 a final order granting adoption of an Indian child is vacated or set aside or if the 11 parental rights to an Indian child of all adoptive parents of the Indian child are 12 voluntarily terminated, the court that vacated or set aside the final decree of 13 adoption or that ordered the termination of parental rights of the adoptive parents 14 shall notify the Indian child's former parent and former Indian custodian and the 15 former parent or former Indian custodian may petition for the return of custody of 16 the Indian child.

17 2. On receipt of a petition under subd. 1., the court shall set a date for a hearing 18 on the petition that allows reasonable time for the parties to prepare. The court shall 19 provide notice of the hearing to the guardian and legal custodian of the Indian child, 20 to all other interested parties as provided in s. 48.27 (6), and to the Indian child's 21 former parent, former Indian custodian, and tribe in the manner specified in sub. (4)
22 (a). The hearing on the petition may not be held until at least 10 days after receipt
23 of the notice of the hearing by the Indian child's former parent, former Indian 24 custodian, and tribe or until at least 25 days after receipt of the notice of the hearing
25 by the U.S. secretary of the interior. On request of the Indian child's former parent,

BILL

1 former Indian custodian, or tribe, the court shall grant a continuance of up to 20
2 additional days to enable the requester to prepare for the hearing.

3 3. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall grant a petition for the return
4 of custody of the Indian child to the Indian child's former parent or former Indian 5 custodian unless there is a showing that return of custody is not in the best interests
6 of the Indian child.

7 (b) Removal from out-of-home care placement. If an Indian child is removed 8 from an out-of-home care placement for the purpose of placing the Indian child in 9 another out-of-home care placement, a preadoptive placement, or an adoptive
10 placement, the placement shall be made in accordance with this section. Removal
11 of an Indian child from an out-of-home care placement for the purpose of returning
12 the Indian child to the home of the parent or Indian custodian from whose custody
13 the Indian child was originally removed is not subject to this section.

14 (9) ADOPTEE INFORMATION. (a) Provision of information to U.S. secretary of the 15 interior. At the time a court enters an order granting adoption of an Indian child, the 16 court shall provide the U.S. secretary of the interior with a copy of the order, together 17 with such other records and papers pertaining to the adoption proceeding as may be 18 necessary to provide that secretary with all of the following information:

- 19 1. The name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child.
- 20 2. The names and addresses of the Indian child's birth parents.
- 21 3. The names and addresses of the Indian child's adoptive parents.
- 22 4. The identity of any agency that has in its possession any files or information
23 relating to the adoptive placement of the Indian child.

24 (b) Confidentiality of parent's identity. The court shall give the birth parent of 25 an Indian child the opportunity to file an affidavit indicating that the birth parent

BILL

1 wishes the U.S. secretary of the interior to maintain the confidentiality of the birth
2 parent's identity. If the birth parent files that affidavit, the court shall include the 3 affidavit with the information provided to the U.S. secretary of the interior under 4 par. (a), and that secretary shall maintain the confidentiality of the birth parent's 5 identity as required under 25 USC 1951 (a) and (b).

6 (c) Provision of tribal affiliation to adoptee. At the request of an Indian adoptee 7 who is 18 years of age or older, the court that entered the order granting adoption of 8 the adoptee shall provide or arrange to provide the adoptee with the tribal affiliation, 9 if any, of the adoptee's birth parents and with such other information as may be 10 necessary to protect any rights accruing to the adoptee as a result of that affiliation.

11 (10) HIGHER STATE OR FEDERAL STANDARD APPLICABLE. The federal Indian Child
12 Welfare Act, 25 USC 1911 to 1963, supersedes this chapter in any Indian child 13 custody proceeding governed by that act, except that in any case in which this 14 chapter provides a higher standard of protection for the rights of an Indian child's 15 parent or Indian custodian than the rights provided under that act, the court shall 16 apply the standard under this chapter.

17 (11) RULES. The department shall promulgate rules to implement and 18 administer this section and the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 USC 1901 to 19 1963.

20 SECTION 14. 48.13 (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

21 48.13 Jurisdiction over children alleged to be in need of protection or 22 services. (intro.) The Except as provided in s. 48.028 (3). the court has exclusive 23 original jurisdiction over a child alleged to be in need of protection or services which 24 can be ordered by the court, and:

25 SECTION 15. 48.14 (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:
