Dec. 29, 2006	(Friday)	Bills sent to Governor
January 3, 2007	(Wednesday)	2007 Inauguration

The Joint Committee on Legislative Organization is required by s. 13.02 (3), stats., and by Joint Rule 81 (1) to develop a proposed biennial session schedule early in each biennial session period and submit it to the legislature for approval in the form of a joint resolution. This session schedule must include at least one meeting of the legislature in January of each year to implement the requirements of s. 13.02, stats., and Joint Rule 83 (3) of annual meetings and the carry-over of measures from the regular annual session of the odd-numbered year to the regular annual session held in the even-numbered year.

Under Joint Rule 81 (2), by majority action of the 2 houses or of the organization committees of the 2 houses, any floorperiod may be extended by convening earlier than its scheduled convening date or later adjournment after its scheduled ending date. Under this joint resolution, by majority action of the 2 houses or of the organization committees of the 2 houses, any floorperiod may be adjourned earlier than its scheduled ending date, except that the floorperiod that commences on May 31, 2005, is not authorized to be adjourned until the general fund executive budget bill has passed both houses.

Under Joint Rule 83 (2), during the periods of committee work preceding the last general-business floorperiod (the floorperiod that commences on April 25, 2006), bills, joint resolutions, resolutions, and amendments may be introduced.

The joint resolution creates a new Joint Rule 81r that permits the biennial session schedule to provide for a limited-business floorperiod after the last general-business floorperiod scheduled by the session schedule for the spring of the even-numbered year that is limited to action on bills introduced by the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules (JCRAR) for the purpose of objecting to proposed administrative rules.

Under Joint Rule 83 (4), May 4, 2006, the last day of the last general-business floorperiod (the floorperiod that commences on April 25, 2006), is the day on which proposals die for the session, unless, under Joint Rule 81 (2), that floorperiod is extended and the proposals to be carried forward for consideration during the extension are specified. The joint resolution, however, creates a new Joint Rule 83

(4) (b) that provides that if a limited–floorperiod is included in the biennial session schedule for action on bills introduced by JCRAR, then any bills introduced by JCRAR that are not yet agreed to by both houses are adversely disposed of for the biennial session at the conclusion of the limited–business floorperiod under Joint Rule 81r and are recorded as “failed to pass.”

Under Joint Rule 83 (5), no new proposals (except proposals pertaining to a veto review session or to any special or extraordinary session) may be introduced after May 4, 2006, the last day of the final general–business floorperiod.

The joint resolution also contains a schedule regarding adjournment, submission of bills to the governor, and veto review for special and extraordinary sessions and extends the deadline for the governor’s budget message to February 8, 2005.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

SECTION 1. Joint rule 81r is created to read:

JOINT RULE 81r Limited–business floorperiod; bills introduced by the joint committee for review of administrative rules. In addition to the floorperiod required under Joint Rule 81m, the biennial session schedule may provide for a floorperiod after the last general–business floorperiod scheduled by the session schedule for the spring of the even–numbered year that is limited to action on bills introduced by the joint committee for review of administrative rules under section 227.19 (5) (e) of the statutes.

SECTION 2. Joint rule 83 (4) is renumbered Joint rule 83 (4) (a) and amended to read:

JOINT RULE 83 (4) (a) At Except as provided in par. (b), at the conclusion of the last general–business floorperiod scheduled by the session schedule for the spring of the even–numbered year, any bill or joint resolution not yet agreed to by both houses, and any resolution not yet passed by the house of origin, is adversely disposed of for the biennial session and recorded as “failed to pass,” “failed to adopt,” or “failed to concur.”

1 SECTION 3. Joint rule 83 (4) (b) is created to read:

2 JOINT RULE 83 (4) (b) If the biennial session schedule provides for a
3 limited-business floorperiod under Joint Rule 81r, any bills introduced by the joint
4 committee for review of administrative rules that are not yet agreed to by both
5 houses are adversely disposed of for the biennial session at the conclusion of the 6 limited-business floorperiod under Joint Rule 81r and are recorded as "failed to 7 pass."

8 SECTION 4. 2005-2006 Session schedule. (1) BIENNIAL SESSION PERIOD. The 9 legislature declares that the biennial session period of the 2005 Wisconsin

For review and comment by JCLO cochairpersons, majority and minority leaders, and Joint Committee on Finance cochairpersons:

This draft creates the 2007-2008 biennial session schedule by updating the dates in the 2005-2006 biennial session schedule to work with the dates in 2007 and 2008. This drafter's note is meant to alert you to any variations from the previous schedule and to any potential scheduling conflicts.

Under s. 16.45, the governor must deliver a budget message and submit a budget on or before the last Tuesday in January of the odd-numbered year, unless the governor requests a later date and the legislature approves in the form of a joint resolution. In the past, the legislature has, generally, granted the governor an extension. Governor McCallum delivered his 2001 budget message on Tuesday, February 20. Governor Doyle delivered his 2003 budget message on Tuesday, February 18, and his 2005 budget message on Tuesday, February 8. Consistent with s. 16.45, the preliminary 2007-2008 schedule indicates that the governor must submit a budget by Tuesday, January 30, 2007. Is that okay, or do you wish to give the governor additional time to submit a budget?

There will be three constitutional amendments ready for 2nd consideration during the 2007-08 legislative session (2005 Senate Joint Resolution 33, related to prohibiting partial vetoes from creating new sentences; 2005 Assembly Joint Resolution 68, related to prohibiting the governor from using the partial veto authority to reject any individual word in a sentence of the enrolled bill; and 2005 Assembly Joint Resolution 36, related to requiring a photographic identification for voting). Under s. 8.37, the resolutions must be filed with the Elections Board no later than February 20, 2007, in order for the question of ratification to be placed on the ballot for the spring election. Do the January and February 2007 floorperiods that we have proposed provide sufficient time to consider the resolutions before the filing deadline or do you wish to extend either of these floor periods?

In 2007, Easter falls on April 8. It has been the practice not to schedule floorperiods the week before or the week after Easter. In this proposed session schedule, we have followed that practice. Please advise if this is not your intent.

Under Joint Rule 82 (2) (a), "Any vetoes ... not previously on a calendar in the house of origin shall be shown as pending business on the calendar for the veto review session's first day." Therefore, under the preliminary 2007-2008 schedule, and consistent with the 2005-2006 schedule, vetoes in the odd-numbered year are not placed on the calendar until May of the even-numbered year, leaving them undecided and subject to consideration at any time until the May veto review session. Please let us know if you wish to schedule additional veto review floorperiods.

Under Joint Rule 81^m, the limited-business floorperiod scheduled for May 13 to 15, 2008, is limited to considering revisor's bills, reconciliation bills, bills introduced by the Joint Committee on Employment Relations (JCOER) ratifying state employee collective bargaining contracts, and resolutions for purposes allowed under Joint Rule 7. Please let us know if you wish to expand or further limit the scope of this floorperiod.

Under Joint Rule 82, the veto review floorperiod scheduled for May 27 and 28, 2008, is limited to considering vetoes, pending nominations for appointments requiring Senate confirmation, revisor's bills, reconciliation bills, bills introduced by JCOER ratifying state employee collective bargaining contracts, and resolutions or joint resolutions introduced by the committee on organization of either house. Please let us know if you wish to expand or further limit the scope of this floorperiod or if you have any questions.

X
Under Joint Rule 81^r, which was adopted in the 2005-06 legislative session, the legislature may schedule a limited-business floorperiod after the last general-business floorperiod in the spring of the even-numbered year that is limited to considering bills introduced by the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules and JCOER. The 2005-2006 session schedule included a limited-business floorperiod under Joint Rule 81^r for December 27 and 28, 2006, but the legislature subsequently moved that floorperiod to July 12, 2006. Do you want a limited-business floorperiod under Joint Rule 81^{oe}?
