2690/1

Whereas, Jeff Nania of Portage, Wisconsin, serves as Executive Director for the Wisconsin Waterfowl Association; and

Whereas, Nania began his service with the Wisconsin Waterfowl Association in 1993 as its Project Director and in 14 years he has led wetland restoration projects in more than two hundred locations statewide; and

Whereas, in 1996, Nania launched Outdoor Adventure Days, an interactive outdoor classroom that has provided more than 7,000 Wisconsin youth with interactive outdoor classroom experiences, strengthening their connection with and appreciation for our natural resources; and

Whereas, in 2002, Nania helped found River Crossing Environmental Charter School, a nationally recognized school for grades seven and eight to inculcate a passion and knowledge for future generations of conservationists and wetland restoration leaders in Wisconsin, and Nania teaches students there as they plan and implement restoration projects; and

Whereas, Nania has worked with hundreds of landowners and natural resource professionals, teaching wetland restoration practices, and he has led thousands of school children in restoration activities, and he works actively with state and federal legislators to advance wetland conservation public policy; and

Whereas, Jeff Nania's extraordinary effort, innovation, and excellence in wetland conservation, research, and education, has led to his recognition as one of six recipients of the 2007 National Wetlands Award by the Environmental Law Institute, on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Federal Highway Administration, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, USDA Forest Service, USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, NOAA Fisheries, and the US Army Corps of Engineers; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, that the Wisconsin legislature congratulates Jeff Nania on the occasion of his national recognition for leadership in wetland restoration; and be it further

Resolved, that the senate chief clerk shall provide a copy of this joint resolution to Mr. Nania.

Please Jacket LRB 07-2690/2 for the SENATE.

This is a rush. We would like to get it on the Senate's Wed calendar. So it would be helpful if we could receive the jacket this afternoon. Thanks.
