Senate Joint Resolution Honoring the Green Bay Packers

Whereas, this past football season, second-year Green Bay Packers head coach Mike McCarthy led the youngest team in the NFL which had finished 8-8 last season, to a 13-3 division record, an NFC North Division title, the No. 2 overall seed in the NFC, and a berth in the NFC Championship Game, and was named 2007 Motorola NFL Coach of the Year; and

Whereas, Brett Favre finished 4th in the league in passing yards with 4155 and also set four milestone records this year, including the most wins by a quarterback with 160, the most career touchdown passes with 442, and the all-time career passing yards mark of 61,655, which led to him being selected to the Pro Bowl for the 9th time and being named the FedEx Air NFL player of the year; and

Whereas, Nick Barnett led the team in regular-season tackles for the fourth time in his five-year career, and finished 5th in the league with 131, and a year after posting a career-best 15½ sacks, Aaron Kampman followed it up with a dozen more this season and a second straight trip to the Pro Bowl; and

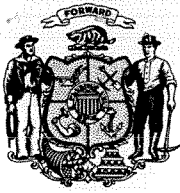

Whereas, Ryan Grant rushed for 956 yards on just 188 regular season attempts with nearly all the yardage gained after he took over as starting running back due to injuries in Week 8, and he rushed for a franchise playoff record 201 yards in the divisional game against the Seattle Seahawks; and

Whereas, Chad Clifton earned his first career Pro Bowl bid and joined teammates Brett Favre, Donald Driver, Aaron Kampman and Al Harris; and

Whereas, on defense, the Packers tied for sixth in the NFL, allowing only 291 total points, as well as tied for sixth in interceptions with 19, and on offense they came in second in total yards per game with 370.7, and total passing yards per game with 270.9, and fourth in total points scored with 435; and

Whereas, despite falling 23-20 in overtime against the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, the Packers had a remarkable season in which they beat the Minnesota Vikings 34-0 at Lambeau Field on November 11, 2007, giving the Packers their first shutout against Minnesota in their 94-game series, matched the franchise mark for most regular-season victories, and hosted two playoff games for the first time since the 1996 season; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That members of the Wisconsin legislature honor the Green Bay Packers coaches, players, and entire organization on their incredible 14-win season and wish them the best of luck in next year's campaign.
