SENATE RESOLUTION

4163/1

Rel: Life and public service of Reverend Richard Kirkendoll.

~~Rev. Richard Kirkendoll BHM Resolution~~

WHEREAS, the Reverend Richard Kirkendoll was a leading voice in the fight for civil rights during the Open Housing Marches in Milwaukee, Wisconsin in the 1960's; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Richard Kirkendoll was described as "the Black Moses" to Father James Groppi's "White Moses" for their dedication to the Open Housing Marches, with Reverend Kirkendoll known to participate in every march that took place; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Richard Kirkendoll was particularly known for his personal protection of children who participated in the marches, including sheltering them at his church and, at a particularly violent march at the 16th Street Viaduct, telling a young girl "Come on, baby, get behind me. I'll protect you"; and

WHEREAS, the Reverend Richard Kirkendoll lived a life of service to his country and community prior to the Open Housing Marches, enlisting in the United States Navy during World War II before moving to Milwaukee and serving as a counselor with ICDP, the Inner City Development Program; now, therefore, be it

Finally resolved by the Senate, that the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin honors the life and service of the Reverend Richard Kirkendoll for his dedication in the face of often extreme adversity to the civil rights and the future of our children of Milwaukee and for the benefit of his community.
