77.522 Sourcing. (1) GENERAL. (a) In this section:

- 1. "Direct mail form" means a form for direct mail prescribed by the department.
  - 2. "Receive" means taking possession of tangible personal property; making first use of services; or taking possession or making first use of digital goods, whichever comes first. "Receive" does not include a shipping company taking possession of tangible personal property on a purchaser's behalf.
  - 3. "Transportation equipment" means any of the following:
  - a. Locomotives and railcars that are used to carry persons or property in interstate commerce.
  - b. Trucks and truck tractors that have a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,001 pounds or greater, trailers, semitrailers, and passenger buses, if such vehicles are registered under the international registration plan and operated under the authority of a carrier that is authorized by the federal government to carry persons or property in interstate commerce.
  - c. Aircraft that is operated by air carriers that are authorized by the federal government or a foreign authority to carry persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce.
  - d. Containers that are designed for use on the vehicles described in subd. 4. a. to c. and component parts attached to or secured on such vehicles.

1	(b) Except as provided in par. (c) and subs. (2), (3), and (4), the location of a sale
2	is determined as follows:
3	1. If a purchaser receives the product at a seller's business location, the sale
4	occurs at that business location.
5	2. If a purchaser does not receive the product at a seller's business location, the
6	sale occurs at the location where the purchaser, or the purchaser's designated donee,
7	receives the product, including the location indicated by the instructions known to
8	the seller for delivery to the purchaser or the purchaser's designated donee.
9	3. If the location of a sale of a product cannot be determined under subds. 1. and
10	2., the sale occurs at the purchaser's address as indicated by the seller's business
11	records, if the records are maintained in the ordinary course of the seller's business
12	and if using that address to establish the location of a sale is not in bad faith.
13	4. If the location of a sale of a product cannot be determined under subds. 1. to
14	3., the sale occurs at the purchaser's address as obtained during the consummation
15	of the sale, including the address indicated on the purchaser's payment instrument,
16	if no other address is available and if using that address is not in bad faith.
17	5. If the location of a sale of a product cannot be determined under subds. 1. to
18	4., the location of the sale is determined as follows:
19	a. If the item sold is tangible personal property, the sale occurs at the location
20	from which the tangible personal property is shipped.
21	b. If the item sold is a digital good, or computer software delivered
22	electronically, the sale occurs at the location from which the digital good or computer

- (c) The sale of direct mail occurs at the location from which the direct mail is shipped, if the purchaser does not provide to the seller a direct pay permit, a direct mail form, or other information that indicates the appropriate taxing jurisdiction to which the direct mail is delivered to the ultimate recipients. If the purchaser provides a direct mail form or direct pay permit to the seller, the purchaser shall pay or remit, as appropriate, to the department the tax imposed under s. 77.53 on all purchases for which the tax is due and the seller is relieved from liability for collecting such tax or that satisfy the requirements under par. (e) or (f). A direct mail form provided to a seller under this paragraph shall remain effective for all sales by the seller who received the form to the purchaser who provided the form, unless the purchaser revokes the form in writing and provides such revocation to the seller.
- (2) Lease or rental. (a) Except as provided in pars. (b) and (c), with regards to the first or only payment on the lease or rental, the lease or rental of tangible personal property occurs at the location determined under sub. (1) (b). If the property is moved from the place where the property was initially delivered, the subsequent periodic payments on the lease or rental occur at the property's primary location as indicated by an address for the property that is provided by the lessee and that is available to the lessor in records that the lessor maintains in the ordinary course of the lessor's business, if the use of such an address does not constitute bad faith. The location of a lease or rental as determined under this paragraph shall not be altered by any intermittent use of the property at different locations.
- (b) The lease or rental of motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, and aircraft, that are not transportation equipment, occurs at the primary location of such motor vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, or aircraft as indicated by an address for the property that is provided by the lessee and that is available to the lessor in records that the

- lessor maintains in the ordinary course of the lessor's business, if the use of such an address does not constitute bad faith, except that a lease or rental under this paragraph that requires only one payment occurs at the location determined under sub. (1) (b). The location of a lease or rental as determined under this paragraph shall not be altered by any intermittent use of the property at different locations.
- (c) The lease or rental of transportation equipment occurs at the location determined under sub. (1) (b).
- (d) A license of tangible personal property, specified digital goods, or additional digital goods shall be treated as a lease or rental of tangible personal property under this subsection.

permit, a direct mail form, or other information that indicates the appropriate taxing jurisdiction to which the direct mail is delivered to the ultimate recipients. In this subsection "sales tax" includes a use or excise tax imposed on the use of tangible personal property, specified digital goods, additional digital goods, or taxable service by the state in which the sale occurred and "state" includes the District of Columbia but does not include and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico or but does not include the several territories organized by congress.

Section 187. 77.53 (17) of the statutes is amended to read:

77.53 (17) This section does not apply to tangible personal property, specified digital goods or additional digital goods purchased outside this state, as determined under s. 77.522, other than motor vehicles, boats, snowmobiles, mobile homes not exceeding 45 feet in length, trailers, semitrailers, all-terrain vehicles and airplanes registered or titled or required to be registered or titled in this state, which is brought into this state by a nondomiciliary for the person's own storage, use or other consumption while temporarily within this state when such property or digital good is not stored, used or otherwise consumed in this state in the conduct of a trade, occupation, business or profession or in the performance of personal services for wages or fees.

SECTION 188. 77.53 (17m) of the statutes is amended to read:

77.53 (17m) This section does not apply to a boat purchased in a state contiguous to this state, as determined under s. 77.522, by a person domiciled in that state if the boat is berthed in this state's boundary waters adjacent to the state of the domicile of the purchaser and if the transaction was an exempt occasional sale under the laws of the state in which the purchase was made.

SECTION 189. 77.53 (17r) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

	of operations as a seller, the storage or use is taxable as of the time the property
2	specified digital goods, additional digital goods, or service is first so stored or used

Section 184. 77.53 (14) of the statutes is amended to read:

77.53 (14) It is presumed that tangible personal property, specified digital goods, additional digital goods, or taxable services shipped or brought to this state by the purchaser were purchased from or serviced by a retailer.

SECTION 185. 77.53 (15) of the statutes is amended to read:

77.53 (15) It is presumed that tangible personal property, specified digital goods, additional digital goods, or taxable services delivered outside this state to a purchaser known by the retailer to be a resident of this state were purchased from a retailer for storage, use, or other consumption in this state and stored, used, or otherwise consumed in this state. This presumption may be controverted by a written statement, signed by the purchaser or an authorized representative, and retained by the seller that the property, digital good, or service was purchased for use at a designated point outside this state. This presumption may also be controverted by other evidence satisfactory to the department that the property, digital good, or service was not purchased for storage, use, or other consumption in this state.

SECTION 186. 77.53 (16) of the statutes is amended to read:

77.53 (16) If the purchase, rental or lease of tangible personal property, specified digital goods, additional digital goods, or service subject to the tax imposed by this section was subject to a sales tax by another state in which the purchase was made, the amount of sales tax paid the other state shall be applied as a credit against and deducted from the tax, to the extent thereof, imposed by this section, except no credit may be applied against and deducted from a sales tax paid on the purchase of direct mail, if the direct mail purchaser did not provide to the seller a direct pay
