23 and settle an action under sub. (5) or an administrative proceeding under sub. (10) 24 to which the state is a party, notwithstanding objection of the person bringing the 25 action, if the court determines, after affording to the person bringing the action the

1 right to a hearing at which the person is afforded the opportunity to present evidence
2 in opposition to the proposed settlement, that the proposed settlement is fair, 3 adequate, and reasonable considering the relevant circumstances pertaining to the 4 violation.

5 (c) Upon a showing by the state that unrestricted participation in the 6 prosecution of an action under sub. (5) or an alternate proceeding to which the state 7 is a party by the person bringing the action would interfere with or unduly delay the 8 prosecution of the action or proceeding, or would result in consideration of 9 repetitious or irrelevant evidence or evidence presented for purposes of harassment, 10 the court may limit the person's participation in the prosecution, such as:

- 11 1. Limiting the number of witnesses that the person may call.
- 12 2. Limiting the length of the testimony of the witnesses.
- 13 3. Limiting the cross-examination of witnesses by the person.
- 14 4. Otherwise limiting the participation by the person in the prosecution of the 15 action or proceeding.

16 (d) Upon showing by a defendant that unrestricted participation in the 17 prosecution of an action under sub. (5) or alternate proceeding under sub. (10) to 18 which the state is a party by the person bringing the action would result in 19 harassment or would cause the defendant undue burden or unnecessary expense, the 20 court may limit the person's participation in the prosecution.

21 (8) Except as provided in sub. (7), if the state elects not to participate in an 22 action filed under sub. (5), the person bringing the action may prosecute the action.
23 If the attorney general so requests, the attorney general shall, at the state's expense, 24 be served with copies of all pleadings and deposition transcripts in the action. If the 25 person bringing the action initiates prosecution of the action, the court, without

1 limiting the status and rights of that person, may permit the state to intervene at a 2 later date upon showing by the state of good cause for the proposed intervention.

3 (9) Whether or not the state participates in an action under sub. (5), upon 4 showing in camera by the attorney general that discovery by the person bringing the 5 action would interfere with the state's ongoing investigation or prosecution of a 6 criminal or civil matter arising out of the same facts as the facts upon which the 7 action is based, the court may stay such discovery in whole or in part for a period of 8 not more than 60 days. The court may extend the period of any such stay upon 9 further showing in camera by the attorney general that the state has pursued the 10 criminal or civil investigation of the matter with reasonable diligence and the 11 proposed discovery in the action brought under sub. (5) will interfere with the 12 ongoing criminal or civil investigation or prosecution.

13 (10) The attorney general may pursue a claim relating to an alleged violation 14 of sub. (2) through an alternate remedy available to the state or any state agency, 15 including an administrative proceeding to assess a civil forfeiture. If the attorney 16 general elects any such alternate remedy, the attorney general shall serve timely 17 notice of his or her election upon the person bringing the action under sub. (5), and 18 that person has the same rights in the alternate venue as the person would have had 19 if the action had continued under sub. (5). Any finding of fact or conclusion of law 20 made by a court or by a state agency in the alternate venue that has become final is 21 conclusive upon all parties named in an action under sub. (5). For purposes of this 22 subsection, a finding or conclusion is final if it has been finally determined on appeal, 23 if all time for filing an appeal or petition for review with respect to the finding or 24 conclusion has expired, or if the finding or conclusion is not subject to judicial review.

1 (11) (a) Except as provided in pars. (b) and (e), if the state proceeds with an
2 action brought by a person under sub. (5) or the state pursues an alternate remedy 3 relating to the same acts under sub. (10), the person who brings the action shall 4 receive at least 15 percent but not more than 25 percent of the proceeds of the action
5 or settlement of the claim, depending upon the extent to which the person 6 contributed to the prosecution of the action or claim.

7 (b) Except as provided in par. (e), if an action or claim is one in which the court 8 or other adjudicator finds to be based primarily upon disclosures of specific 9 information not provided by the person who brings an action under sub. (5) relating 10 to allegations or transactions specifically in a criminal, civil, or administrative 11 hearing, or in a legislative or administrative report, hearing, audit, or investigation, 12 or report made by the news media, the court or other adjudicator may award such 13 amount as it considers appropriate, but not more than 10 percent of the proceeds of 14 the action or settlement of the claim, depending upon the significance of the 15 information and the role of the person bringing the action in advancing the 16 prosecution of the action or claim.

17 (c) Except as provided in par. (e), in addition to any amount received under par.
18 (a) or (b), a person bringing an action under sub. (5) shall be awarded his or her 19 reasonable expenses necessarily incurred in bringing the action together with the 20 person's costs and reasonable actual attorney fees. The court or other adjudicator 21 shall assess any award under this paragraph against the defendant.

22 (d) Except as provided in par. (e), if the state does not proceed with an action 23 or an alternate proceeding under sub. (10), the person bringing the action shall 24 receive an amount that the court decides is reasonable for collection of the civil 25 penalty and damages. The amount shall be not less than 25 percent and not more

1 than 30 percent of the proceeds of the action and shall be paid from the proceeds. In 2 addition, the person shall be paid his or her expenses, costs, and fees under par. (c).

3 (e) Whether or not the state proceeds with the action or an alternate proceeding
4 under sub. (10), if the court or other adjudicator finds that an action under sub. (5)
5 was brought by a person who planned or initiated the violation upon which the action 6 or proceeding is based, then the court may, to the extent that the court considers 7 appropriate, reduce the share of the proceeds of the action that the person would 8 otherwise receive under par. (a), (b), or (d), taking into account the role of that person 9 in advancing the prosecution of the action or claim and any other relevant 10 circumstance pertaining to the violation, except that if the person bringing the action 11 is convicted of criminal conduct arising from his or her role in a violation of sub. (2), 12 the court or other adjudicator shall dismiss the person as a party and the person shall 13 not receive any share of the proceeds of the action or claim or any expenses, costs, and 14 fees under par. (c).

15 (12) (a) No court has jurisdiction over an action brought by a private person 16 under sub. (5) against a state public official if the action is based upon information 17 known to the attorney general at the time that the action is brought.

18 (b) No person may bring an action under sub. (5) that is based upon allegations
19 or transactions that are the subject of a civil action or an administrative proceeding
20 to assess a civil forfeiture in which the state is a party if that action or proceeding 21 was commenced prior to the date that the action is filed.

22 (13) The state is not liable for any expenses incurred by a private person in 23 bringing an action under sub. (5).

24 (14) Any employee who is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, 25 harassed, or in any other manner discriminated against by his or her employer

1 because of lawful actions taken by the employee, on behalf of the employee, or by 2 others in furtherance of an action or claim filed under this section, including 3 investigation for, initiation of, testimony for, or assistance in an action or claim filed 4 or to be filed under sub. (5) is entitled to all necessary relief to make the employee
5 whole. Such relief shall in each case include reinstatement with the same seniority 6 status that the employee would have had but for the discrimination, 2 times the 7 amount of back pay, interest on the back pay at the legal rate, and compensation for 8 any special damages sustained as a result of the discrimination, including costs and 9 reasonable actual attorney fees. An employee may bring an action to obtain the relief 10 to which the employee is entitled under this subsection.

11 (15) A civil action may be brought based upon acts occurring prior to the 12 effective date of this subsection [revisor inserts date], if the action is brought 13 within the period specified in s. 893.981.

14 (16) A judgment of guilty entered against a defendant in a criminal action in 15 which the defendant is charged with fraud or making false statements estops the 16 defendant from denying the essential elements of the offense in any action under sub.
17 (5) that involves the same elements as in the criminal action.

18 (17) The remedies provided for under this section are in addition to any other 19 remedies provided for under any other law or available under the common law.

20 (18) This section shall be liberally construed and applied to promote the public 21 interest and to effect the congressional intent in enacting 31 USC 3279 to 3733, as 22 reflected in the act and the legislative history of the act.
