Mark, Thanks for all of your great work. We have one more, hopefully our final amendment request:

Simply make the $2,000 fee Annual. No change to the department, no distribution. Thank much.

John Anderson.

I will do this as a new LRB no. Sorry for the confusion, but for technical reasons that I don't quite understand, it makes more sense to give it a new LRB no. If that's a problem, let me know.

Mark,

Could I get a0397 redrafted for AB 207? It's keeping free service to schools and maintaining existing I-nets. I'll send the stripes back.

John: Sen. Miller is the original requester so it will probably end up in your office.

Sen. Miller:

This bill requires a video service provider to pay a $2,000 annual fee to DFI, which is first due one year after issuance of a video service franchise. The amendment does not affect the requirement to pay a $2,000 application fee. As a result, an applicant must pay $2,000 with the application, and beginning one year after issuance, must pay a $2,000 annual fee. ✓
