Description
Authorizing an elective member of a political subdivision's governing body to refuse his or her salary

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

If enacted, this bill would authorize a member or a member-elect of a governing body of a city, village, town, or county to refuse to accept the salary to which he or she is otherwise entitled. The bill also allows the member or member-elect to rescind the refusal to accept the salary at any time.

There would be no state effect as the bill only allows refusal of salary for a member or member-elect of a governing body of a city, village, town, or county. The local effect can not be determined as it is not possible to identify how many members or members-elect would request to refuse their salary and for what period of time the refusal would cover.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
