Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a person may receive a permit from the federal government to hunt, fish, or trap within the boundaries of Fort McCoy, a U.S. army installation in this state (McCoy permit). The McCoy permit is required in addition to a hunting, fishing, or trapping license issued by the state. Currently, a person must apply in person at Fort McCoy to receive the permit.

Also under federal law a hunter of migratory waterfowl must have a federal migratory bird hunting and conservation stamp (duck stamp), in addition to the state waterfowl hunting stamp issued by the Department of Natural Resources (DNR).

This bill authorizes the federal government to enter into a contract with DNR so that McCoy permits and duck stamps may be issued through the automated statewide system with which DNR contracts for issuing fish and game approvals (ALIS). The bill requires that the contract set the fees to be collected for McCoy permits and duck stamps, the amount of each fee to be retained by DNR, and the amount of each fee to be paid to the ALIS contractor. The bill also authorizes DNR to contract to issue through ALIS other federal approvals that authorize hunting, fishing, or trapping.
